

Hopkins Punishes 2 Kentucky WPA Men for Coercion

Work-Relief Administrator
Says Punishment and Publicity on False Charges Will Be Given Equally Prompt

Defends F.D.R.

Says Chief Executive Within
His Rights With General
Statements to Voters

Washington, June 30 (AP).—Harry Hopkins announced today that two WPA straw-bosses in Kentucky have been punished for playing politics.

The work-relief administrator, replying to recent charges of political coercion in the Kentucky WPA, said in a statement:

"We will deal swiftly and summarily with any proven charge of political coercion, but we will be equally prompt in exposing any accusations trumped up to serve the political ends of those who are opposed to this administration."

Hopkins responded specifically to charges contained in a recent series of newspaper articles. These allegations mentioned partisans of both Senator Alben W. Barkley, the administration labor leader, and Governor A. B. Chandler, who are waging a hot campaign for the Democratic senatorial nomination in Kentucky.

All charges are probed. "Every charge in which a WPA worker or official was named," Hopkins said, "has been thoroughly investigated, and documentary evidence conclusively establishes that out of more than a score of cases in which political activity was alleged, only two instances of improper conduct could be found."

He said the two WPA workers involved were Lee Carden, chief supervisor for the Edmonson county district, and Cleve Keeney, foreman in the Newport district. Evidence showed, Hopkins said, that Carden had distributed among WPA workers registration cards designed to procure political information.

"We have taken steps to see that this man minds his own business," the WPA administrator said. "He was told that any such activity on his part in the future would result in his being fired."

Keeney, the statement said, discussed with one of his subordinates a meeting addressed by Chandler and remarked that "the fellows on the job are going to have to support Barkley if they are going to stay on the WPA."

Hopkins said that "we regard this remark by Mr. Keeney as reprehensible." He added that State Administrator Goodman had been instructed "to take the necessary punitive action."

Defends President. The chairman told reporters yesterday he was not concerned about President Roosevelt's speeches in support of "liberal" candidates. The Chief Executive, he said, is "within his rights in making a general statement to the country at large."

From Representative Eaton (R-N.J.) came a statement that Williams' address "made a direct political appeal for New Deal support."

"The next day," Eaton said, "he wrote to the Senate campaign investigation committee that 'there was nothing political in what I said.'"

The statement, issued through the Republican national committee, added:

"It certainly seems that Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde have become the paired and evil of 'liberal' men. But it is in accord with the New Deal pattern of striving to be all things to all men."

Pratt Boice Attending
San Francisco Convention

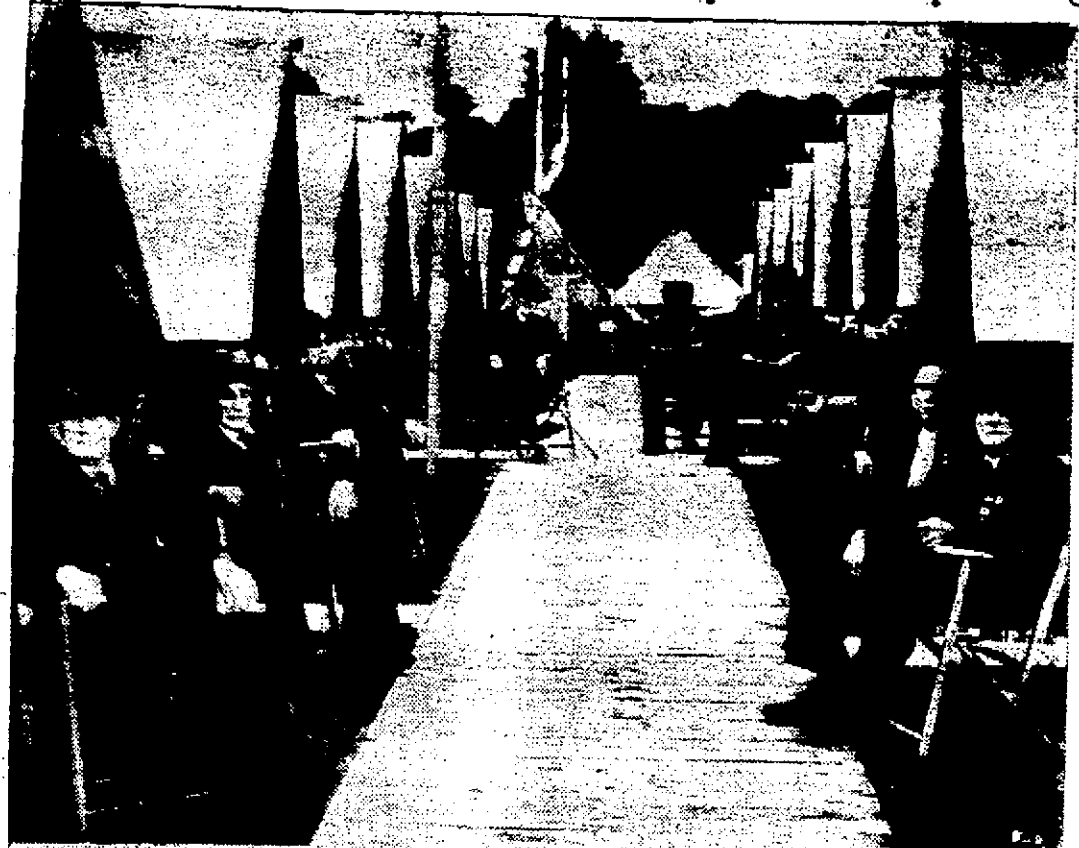

San Francisco, Cal., June 30 (AP).—New York state Kiwanians planned today to assist rural youths to carry out farm projects during the forthcoming twelve months.

Here to attend the annual meeting of Kiwanis International, the New York delegation decided to include on its 1935-36 program, promotion of farm projects and vocational agriculture in high schools.

Members of the agricultural committee from the New York delegation included Albert Hoefler, chairman, and Pratt Boice, Kingston.

Treasury Receipts. Washington, June 30 (AP).—The position of the treasury on June 28: Receipts $8,944,682.70; expenditures $18,859,234.07; net balance $2,285,387,031.32, including $1,698,117,671.19 working balance; customs receipts for the month $20,675,089.67. Receipts for the fiscal year (since July 1), $6,213,910,824.60; expenditures $7,647,588,747.13, including $2,151,895,474.59 of emergency expenditures; excess of expenditures $1,432,678,922.53; gross debt $37,120,596,210.81, a decrease of $942,272.20 from the previous day; gold assets $12,950,534,262.65.

Veterans Move Into 'Tent City' at Gettysburg

Beside the pitched tents which will house them during their reunion on the Gettysburg battlefield sit veterans of the Blue and the Gray, encamped for their last get-together. Some 2,000 men who fought in the War Between the States were expected to take part in ceremonies at the spot where the tide of conflict turned against the Confederacy.

2,000 Civil War Veterans Tent on Old Camp Grounds

Gettysburg, Pa., June 30 (AP).—Two thousand aged Civil War veterans, tenting for the last time on the old camp ground, turned back the pages of the nation's history 75 years today to the great conflict between the north and the south.

Across the same dusty Pennsylvania road that once divided the Union, the remnants of two mighty armies faced each other again as they did nearly three score years ago in the battle that marked the turning point of the war.

But it was not the boys in blue and the striplings in gray that the old soldiers met—on this 75th anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg—but as comrades, without regard for blue or gray.

Except for a few late comers, the last bivouac of the Grand Army of the Republic and of the men of Robert E. Lee was completed today. Most of them checked in to camp yesterday, where 2,000 tents have been pitched.

Yesterday and today were set aside for the veterans to renew old friendships. Carefully attended by traveling companions, aided by National Guardsmen and Boy Scouts, they will be feted for the next four days with parades, band concerts, military displays and tours of the battlefield and its national cemetery.

Six hospital cases were reported on the first day of the encampment but all but one were classed as minor.

Forst Packing Co. Buys Two Sites for Garage and Depot

The Jacob Forst Packing Company of this city has purchased the two tenements at 456 and 458 West 31st street, New York city, as a site for a garage and transfer depot for its business in New York city.

The property was purchased from Benjamin Gottfried, of the Gottfried Baking Company, who purchased the property recently from the trustees in bankruptcy of the Runkel Realty Company.

Leon Forst of New York represented the Packing Company in the transaction.

Fire Board Makes No Appointment

The board of fire commissioners did not make any appointment to the paid fire department at the regular monthly meeting Wednesday evening.

There is one vacancy in the department caused by the death of Fireman Ferrill Finkle. This position is being filled temporarily by Daniel Noble.

As a result of the vacancy in the fire department the civil service board some months ago held an examination and have filed with the fire board an eligible list from which an appointment may be made.

FDR at World's Fair Site. Hyde Park, N. Y., June 30 (AP).—President Roosevelt, riding in an open car, left here at 10:20 a. m. (EST) today for New York where he will make two speeches at the World's Fair grounds this afternoon. During his stay of several hours in New York, the President planned to see Crown Prince Gustav Adolf of Sweden, who is ill in Harkness Pavilion, Medical Center.

Deadline Approaches On Marriage Measure

Albany, N. Y., June 30 (AP).—Only a few hours were left to prospective newweds today to obtain marriage licenses and escape the requirement of a physical examination for syphilis, New York's newest legislative weapon against spread of the disease.

The Desmond-Kreibitz bill enacted by the 1932 Legislature, which would deny a license to any couple unless both persons are certified by a physician free of communicable stage of the disease, became effective tomorrow.

Licenses issued become void unless marriages are solemnized within 60 days and an earlier examination will be required before a second license is granted.

Republican State Senator Thomas C. Desmond, Newburgh, co-author of the law, explained the provision, however, is not "retroactive."

"Couples who have secured a license before July 1," he said, "will be able to get married without examination for syphilis until a full year has expired from the date of the license."

Also taking effect tomorrow is one section of a new statute which eventually will permit over-the-counter sale of life insurance by savings banks electing to engage in such business.

Treasury Closes Books; Is in Red For Eighth Year

Washington, June 30 (AP).—The treasury closed books today on its eighth consecutive "red ink" fiscal year, but found it owes less to private investors than it did a year ago.

Although the government spent $1,360,000,000 more than its income, the national debt was only $700,000,000 higher than a year ago because part of the deficit was paid by using idle gold.

Meanwhile, the social security and other governmental trust funds poured in $1,045,943,000 for investment in government securities. Thus the treasury had about $350,000,000 left with which it retired some of its securities owned by private investors.

The treasury now owes about $4,300,000,000 to its own trust funds, $2,562,000,000 to the federal reserve banks, and the rest to the public.

In the fiscal year starting tomorrow, however, the treasury will have to return to the market to borrow roughly $2,000,000,000. This will be in addition to the billions it will automatically borrow from trust funds in order to finance the huge new spending-lending program.

The debt now is $37,125,000,000 and may rise to $40,000,000,000 in the next year. It averages $287 a person, but was slightly higher early in March before income tax payments and gold use cut down the burden. The record high was $37,814,477,017 on March 12.

Receipts during the last 12 months increased $1,000,000,000 over the previous year, and expenditures of slightly more than $7,600,000,000 declined $400,000,000. Thus the 1935 deficit was about half that of the previous year and was the lowest since 1931.

6 Mexicans Die. Mexico, June 30 (AP).—At least six lives were lost, it was reported in belated dispatches today, in two Mexican states struck by disastrous wind and rain storms.

Awards Are Made To 8 Claimants By Land Officials

Awards to eight claimants are made by Commissioners of Appraisal Augustus Shufeldt, George G. Brooks and George W. Garrison, appointed by County Judge Frederick G. Traver in September, 1937, for lands taken for the reconstruction of Post Part 1, State Highway No. 231, lying in the town of Lloyd.

The report is the second separate report of the commissioners and includes lands on the lower end of the taking in the village of Highland. A prior report was filed covering parcels on the upper end of the contract near the Esopus town line. There still remain a few small parcels to be reported upon at the extreme lower section.

Taken for 9-W. The awards made by the commissioners are for lands taken for the reconstruction of that section of route 9-W lying between the Esopus town line and the Mid-Hudson bridge circle just south of Highland village. The report was dated June 21 and filed this week in the office of the county clerk.

Included in the awards are several substantial amounts. Roscoe V. Elsworth appeared for the county of Ulster before the commission and A. D. & A. W. Lent of Highland represented claimants.

Awards as follows. Awards made are as follows: Lillian A. Miller, $4,500, subject to an unpaid sewer assessment.

John Peter Goldt, $2,000, subject to a mortgage and unpaid sewer assessment.

Edward Rhodes and Abraham Rhodes, $3,500, subject to unpaid sewer assessment.

Julia Dell Vecchia, $700, subject to several liens and unpaid sewer assessment.

George and Katherine Fowler, $300, subject to mortgage lien.

Carl Dapp and wife, $2,000, subject to unpaid sewer assessment.

John F. Wadlin, executor, etc., of Charlotte I. Wadlin, $9,500, subject to certain mortgages and unpaid sewer assessments.

Ciro Abbati and Pietrina Abbati, $2,250, subject to certain mortgages and liens.

Conger Installed As U. S. Judge in New York Today

Edward A. Conger, of Poughkeepsie, was installed as a judge of the United States District Court, Southern District, today at a ceremony in the federal building at New York city, the Associated Press reports.

Presiding Judge John C. Knox administered the oath of office in the presence of the ten other members of the district court bench. Chief Deputy U. S. Marshal Leo Lowenthal then robed the new jurist, who was appointed recently by President Roosevelt, and escorted him to a seat on the bench.

Judge Conger is well known in this city, having married the former Mary Whalen of 103 West Chester street.

Not a Candidate. New York, June 30 (AP).—"Farley for governor" posters appeared in downtown Manhattan today, but Postmaster James J. Farley said he knew "nothing about it." "I am not a candidate," Farley said laughing. "This was done without my permission."

Police Chief Puts Pressure on Firm To Clothe 11 Men

Captain A. H. Richter Learns
Saugerties Resident Paid
Funds to Solicitor but Got No Garments

Saugerties, June 30.—Eleven men of this village are awaiting the arrival of new suits on which they had made all payments but the final dollar, and they will have Captain A. H. Richter of the local police to thank for the addition to their wardrobe.

All of the men joined what is known as a "suit club," and agreed to buy suits at $39 each after they had completed payments on the installment plan of $1 a week.

Two weeks ago, however, the club members were uncertain as to whether they had joined a club and they lost hope of that sartorial improvement on which they had figured for 38 weeks.

Members of the so-called club had signed up with an agent who gave the name of his company as the Lawrence-Williams Co., of Fifth Avenue, New York. They were given cards on which records of their weekly payments were made.

Collections were made regularly, according to Captain Richter, with the exception of the final installment for which the collector failed to appear.

After he remained conspicuously absent for some time, Captain Richter made an investigation in which he learned that the company was not at the New York address, nor at any other insofar as he was able to learn. He was unable to locate the agent who had collected for the suits and he then filed a warrant for his arrest with the New York police.

Under threat of the arrest of her husband, the wife of the agent, through an attorney made arrangements for fulfilling the orders, and according to Captain Richter, the father of the young man responsible for the suit club, will see that each of the members will get his clothes.

At this stage of developments, Captain Richter said, the claimants will not press charges, if the suits are delivered.

Ulster Material For World's Fair Showing Is Listed

Farm Manager Albert Kurdt, chairman of the Ulster county committee for representation at the New York state exhibit at the coming New York World's Fair, was in New York Wednesday on business connected with the exhibit.

Mr. Kurdt handed Director Weber a preliminary list of material that has been gathered from Ulster county sources for the proposed exhibit. It comprised a long list of articles. Mrs. Alton B. Parker, chairman of the arts and crafts committee, has gotten together many interesting items which are offered for exhibition purposes. They cover a wide range, including paintings, bookbindings, glassware and the like.

Among them are samples of glass from the former factories in Ellenville and Glasco.

Pictures of Ulster county scenery, sports, industries, prominent people (with historical sketches) have also been listed.

The list submitted Wednesday was not the final one as the committee still has till July 15 to submit lists of material available. No selections have been made as yet, as Mr. Weber will come up later and select such material listed as he deems worth while and of sufficient interest to be given a place in the exhibit.

June Rainfall Leads Six Years

June has proved to be the wettest June in the past six years according to the records in the city engineer's office in the city hall with a recorded rainfall during the month of 6.37 inches. The nearest approach to this record was in June of 1935 when 4.82 inches fell.

The rain gauge by which the rainfall is measured daily was installed on the roof of the city hall on March 8, 1932, when the first records of rainfall in the city began.

A glance through the records since 1933 proved interesting. The rainfall in June, 1933, was .79 inches; in June, 1934, it was 3.6 inches; in June of 1935, 4.82 inches; in June of 1936, it was 3.42 inches, while in June of 1937 it was 3.86 inches.

Another fact worth noting is that over half of the record rainfall this month was during the past Sunday, Monday and Tuesday when 3.81 inches fell during the three days. The greatest rainfall was on Monday when 3.08 inches was recorded.

New Events Share Interest With War In Europe Today

British Quarrel, Czech Song and German Protest Ring
New Disturbing Notes
In Foreign Circles

(By The Associated Press)

A quarrel between the British parliament and the war office, the disaster of storm and earthquake in Japan and a Czechoslovak song that brought a reported German protest shared attention today with the world's wars and rumors of wars.

Quarrel: A British army corps which had called Duncan Sandys, Conservative M. P., to explain how he came to possess secret information on anti-aircraft defenses cancelled its summons and adjourned until the House of Commons completes an inquiry to determine whether its cherished privileges had been breached.

The House committee on privileges dealt with the summons phase while a select committee of inquiry prepared to determine whether War Secretary Leslie Hore-Belisha tried to gag critics Sandys by threatening interrogation under British spy law.

No Song Report

Song: Official Czechoslovak circles could not or would not confirm an official German report that Berlin had protested against classroom songs regarded as satirical attacks on Reichsfuhrer Hitler.

In China, new rains swept the Yangtze valley and increased flood dangers in the path of the up-valley Japanese drive on Hankow, Chinese capital. The drive apparently was bogged down already at a cross-Yangtze boom at Matowchen, 176 miles downstream from Hankow.

In Spain, insurgent planes made new forays on the Catalan coast, bombing a railway linking Barcelona with France. Authorities estimated 36 persons were killed and 50 injured. On the Valencia waterfront, an insurgent drive crunched government defenses in two places in the Sierra de Espadana, a mountain ridge some 20 miles north of Valencia.

Meanwhile, the British government anxiously awaited the insurgent regime's reply to protests against aerial attacks on British shipping.

The reply, being brought to London by Sir Robert M. Hodgson, British agent at Burgos, was reported to propose establishment of a Spanish government port where "legitimate" cargoes could be safely landed.

France ordered creation of an additional army corps along her northern and eastern frontiers and importation of colonial troops in another move to bring her continental standing army to 1,600,000 men.

Po'keepsie Firm Named by Holt As Books Buyer

Listed among companies which in 1937 bought so-called Democratic campaign books, is the L. H. Swenson Co., Inc., Poughkeepsie, according to the Associated Press.

The company's name was included among those published in The Congressional Record by Senator Holt (D-N.Y.), who criticized the sale of Democratic campaign books as a very questionable method of obtaining campaign contributions.

"Some firms who bought books at outrageous sums do business with the federal government," Holt said.

"Other firms who want to do business with the federal government also purchased these books, many of which were autographed by the President of the United States."

Officials Report That 200 Per- sons Are Missing and That 297,379 Homes Have Been Swept Away

12-Inch Rainfall

Terrific Winds Expected to Strike Late Today Unless Deflected

Tokyo, June 30 (AP).—A typhoon howled toward Japan's islands today in the wake of two days of horror in which at least 100 persons were killed and 200 others were missing.

Tokyo was virtually isolated by the heaviest deluge of rain in Japan's recorded history and by an earthquake which levelled homes and disrupted rail and wire communications.

The Central Meteorological Institute warned all cities in southern Japan to be prepared for the tropical hurricane blowing northward across the China Sea.

It said the winds would strike late this afternoon unless they were deflected. Most Ulster and larger freighters remained tied at their docks in Yokohama.

Meteorologists reported the typhoon was approaching the eastern coast of Japan but said they believed it would pass the islands.

297,379 Houses Destroyed. A police survey showed a total of 297,379 houses destroyed or damaged throughout the nation and 104 bridges down.

Related reports from the north indicated there had been a second earthquake and a nation-wide total of at least 177 landslides.

Most of the deaths were in Tokyo and Yokohama. In both cities landslides crumpled homes. A railroad tunnel collapsed near Tokyo and a main line road bed was washed away. Many rivers burst their banks, imperiling other homes beneath undermined cliffs.

12-Inch Rainfall. More than 12 inches of rain fell, flooding 150,000 homes in Tokyo alone. The rain, greatest in 60 years, had slackened early this afternoon but roaring winds were growing steadily.

Rivers still were high and police forcibly removed families from lowland homes and areas endangered by further landslides, the cause of most of the casualties. Earth, already soaked by the torrential rains, slipped in many places after the quakes.

The landslides in Tokyo and Yokohama were the worst disasters.

Eighteen persons were crushed or smothered to death in the heart of Tokyo when part of the estate of Baron Takahimi Mitsui slipped shortly after the earthquake. Forty others were entombed and their fate was not known.

A similar catastrophe buried five houses in Yokohama, where a 90-foot cliff collapsed. Two women, each with her two children, were killed. With their husbands fighting in China, they had lived under the same roof.

Three persons in another family here drowned when a baby fell into a pool of water and its parents dived in, but in vain, trying to rescue it.

Volunteers Ask Tag Days' Support

An impressive record of accomplishments during the year was cited today as the outstanding reason why the Tag Day to be held by the Volunteers of America, should be given local support.

OLYMPIC QUESTION MARK

Should we participate in the next Olympiad, as planned?

The theory that the Olympic games promote international good feeling was pretty well exploded in Germany in 1936. It is true, that the German government put its best foot forward, so that many Olympic spectators came away with a general impression of a beautiful and orderly country. They saw no concentration camps and no untoward racial incidents on the public streets. It is equally true that good sportsmanship was not a part of the German welcome to all foreign athletes. Jewish competitors were barred, and Hitler, who greeted and congratulated all white victors, refused to greet the colored winners on the American team.

When the great festival of sport was over, international feeling was just where it had been before. The Nazis continue to despise the weakling democracies. The democracies continue to distrust and actively dislike the Nazi government. The confusion of the civil war in Spain, with its curious line-up of foreign interests taking part in the conflict, was not checked by the Olympic games. The terrible war in China has developed since then, and in the face of Japan's preparations for the 1940 games. There is much to be said for the view of the New York Times, expressed in a recent serious editorial, that there are more reasons for staying out of the Tokyo Olympiad than for going in.

LOVE OR FAIR PLAY?

An idealistic citizen, commenting on Secretary Hull's program for a world order based on law, insists that there is another principle needed—the Christian principle of love. The nations, he says, must love one another, in harmony with the sacred injunction to "love thy neighbor as thyself."

It is a hard saying, as every realist will point out—for individuals and still more so for nations in their relations with each other. The ideal is hard enough when expressed not in the warm terms of "love" but merely in the friendly terms of "good will." For a while the modern world seemed to be making progress in that direction, but lately is getting farther away from it. It is doubtless the right ideal for enlightened people to work toward, but seems to have small appeal for this hard-headed and hard-fisted age.

Perhaps there is another principle, though, through which progress can be made even now, toward international understanding and tolerance. That is the principle of sportsmanship. We have it in our athletics and many other phases of our modern life. It may be a negative or neutral quality, yet it is very valuable. Why can we not have more sportsmanship in international affairs, insisting on fair play to foreigners as well as ourselves? That is all self-respecting nations ask.

SAFETY POW-WOW

Last November a group of newspaper men from some 40 American cities met in New York for a safety "seminar" sponsored by the C.I.T. Safety Foundation. They exchanged ideas with experts and each other on making highways safer. Their newspapers joined in the general national campaign for highway safety.

What has happened since then seems to prove the course successful. The traffic safety record in the cities represented show a marked improvement over last year. They have had a reduction of 29 per cent in traffic deaths and 10 per cent in non-fatal injuries. A few of them have done better than that, cutting the traffic toll in half. These figures are considerably better than the national figure.

There is to be a similar gathering of newspaper men in July, devoting its attention to the same cause. It is expected that further progress in traffic safety will follow. If it does, this plan should be widely adopted.

MONUMENT TO JEWS

Another World War monument has been completed in France. It is at Douaumont and pays honor to Jews who died in service during the war. The French, Naval, and Air forces are in the dedicating ceremony.

monies, pledged France to defend freedom for all races.

One sometimes wonders whether all the proposed World War monuments will be finished before the next war breaks out, and even whether the memorial business is not being overdone a little. This particular monument, however, seems important and more than justified. Race was no bar to patriotism and sacrifice on the field of battle in the years 1914 to 1918. Jews fought for their home land in that conflict, whether the land was France or England or Germany or any other. Germany today chooses to ignore such service and to persecute that group of citizens. France reminds us that gratitude is not a lost national virtue and that fairness, freedom and democracy still have a foothold in continental Europe.

Now that they're got the beavers building dams again in the West, why not use 'em regularly for power dams? And then maybe put electric eels in the water to pep up the current.

Stock prices lately are encouraging, but don't gamble too much on them; it takes more than thermometers to make the weather.

It looks as if that Chinese war will soon be fought in houseboats.

"Inferiority complex" works out in strange ways. The Japs wouldn't be so fierce if they were taller.

If people have money to buy stocks as they did last week, they must have money to buy everything else.

Present-day civilization seems to be mostly a headache.

THAT BODY OF YOURS

SYMPTOMS OF HEART DISEASE

There was a time when a pain under the breast bone was called stomachache and if the pain persisted and death followed it was said to be due to acute indigestion. As a matter of fact, pain under breast bone is one of the outstanding symptoms of heart trouble and in most cases is caused by an insufficient supply of blood to the heart muscle itself due to disease or spasm of the little blood vessels which carry the blood to the heart from the large or main blood vessel—the aorta. It is called angina pectoris.

In pointing out the above fact, Dr. H. N. Jennings, Calgary, in the Canadian Medical Association Journal, states that "It is important to distinguish between a simple attack of angina pectoris from coronary occlusion (blocking or part blocking of the vessels supplying the heart). The attack of angina pectoris is rarely more than a few minutes; if the pain persists for half an hour it is the more serious condition—coronary occlusion."

There are many conditions which cause pain in the left side of the chest and frighten patients with the thought of heart disease. Crampy pains may be caused by constipation, by pleurisy, by rheumatism or arthritis of the spine, and shingles (herpes zoster).

Another early symptom of heart disease is breathlessness on exertion. If one gets out of breath doing some slight or ordinary task it would be well to have the heart examined, although too much acid food with insufficient exercise will also cause breathlessness.

Palpitation can be a true or false sign of heart disease because, as Dr. Jennings points out, palpitation is a symptom that depends largely on the mental type of the patient. Many nervous individuals with normal hearts have hearts that beat rapidly due to their nervous or emotional dispositions. Also, after recovery from an acute infection, the heart may not be completely free of the poison and palpitation may be present for some time after the patient has recovered. "The patient complaining of palpitation should always have a careful examination as serious damage to the heart may be present with no other complaint, although more often no damage is present."

The first point then is that three symptoms of heart disease—pain under breast bone, breathlessness, and palpitation—may one or all be present where there is no heart disease.

The second point is that when one or all are present an examination should be made.

WHY WORRY ABOUT YOUR HEART?

Is it skipping beats? Is it murmuring? Do you get out of breath easily? Does your heart pound on occasion? Send today for this instructive booklet entitled "Why Worry About Your Heart?" (No. 102) by Dr. Barton. It tells the story of your heart in a simple and satisfying way. OCTAGON HOUSE

BY PHOEBE ATWOOD TAYLOR

Chapter 48

The Plot Thickens

A FEW minutes before nine that same morning, Assey slid his long Porter roadster up the Octagon House drive—so quietly that the woman standing by the back door didn't even turn her head.

With a grin, Assey recognized Nettie Hobbs in the trailing black dress she reserved for funerals, and doing good.

"I tell you," Nettie said shrilly, "it's some calves' foot jelly for poor dear Aaron—"

Pam's laugh rippled out. "Nettie, she said, 'I'm sure you mean well, but the last thing father wants to put into his mouth at this point is a calf's foot. He can just manage a thin straw.'"

"I must say," Nettie observed acidly, "I guess I know when I'm not wanted!"

"As a matter of fact," Pam returned, "you don't. If you did, you'd have gone straight home Friday night, and all this wouldn't have happened. It's a painful point, but very true."

"You're mad," Nettie said, "because I thought you killed your sister. And if you want to know, I'm not at all sure that you didn't, so there!"

"Oh, come," Pam said. "Would you want to be even the step-mother of a murderer?"

Nettie switched around so quickly that she nearly tripped. Her eyes lighted on the roadster, and she stopped her frowning, off-in-indignation act.

"Oh, it's Miss May!" she said, walking over. "Miss May—"

"Oh, an odd expression came over her face. 'Oh,'"

"Yup," Assey said, fishing in his pocket. "Miss May. You can tell him by his car. When he has the car with him, Nettie, here's a nice shiny 50 cent piece, an' a nice shiny dime. Ordinarily I don't make no refunds, but this 60 cents has been burnin' holes in my pockets."

He held out the money, but Nettie fled. Pam stroled out of the house.

"Assey, what did you do to her? She's simply deflated! She scuttled!"

"If ever you have any trouble with her," Assey said, "just ask if she needs a good paint job done. Where's everyone, an' how's Assey?"

"Peg's up with him now," Pam said. "He's loads better, even managed to eat a soft-boiled egg for breakfast. Tim and Gran went tearing off—a telegram came. Some friends of theirs landed in Provincetown, or something. Good Lord, Assey," she added as he got out of the roadster, "what a royal splendor! What—what elegance! I hadn't got the full force of you in the car. Ain't you something?"

"Uh-huh," Assey said. He saw no need of telling her that Jennie Mayo had stood over him and almost forcibly removed his paint clothes, and thrust him into the white flannels, the while keeping up a steady conversation about his promise to dress up. "So Aaron's really better?"

"He seems almost himself. But I thought," Pam said, "that I'd better nip the calves' foot jelly in the bud. I mean, on the hoof—where are you going?" she asked Peg Boone, as they met her at the door.

Peg smiled. "Whenever possible," she said. "I avoid the hour. Nine o'clock is going to strike, very shortly. I do wish I hadn't this complex about clocks! What about Jack, Assey? Does Hanson still have him?"

"Oh, Hanson's wanderin' around with him. I guess he's got his case, all right."

The clocks began to strike as he and Pam went into the circular hall. Assey listened appreciatively, and stared intently at the smallest clock, in the shape of a cat.

'He Drips Eyes'

"SEEMS to be of lost an eye," he said, knowing full well that the eye was lost, and where it had been found.

"That little one? He drips eyes," Pam said. "I've got an old evening bag, an old yellow beaded thing, that I just use to replace them."

"Yellow evenin' bag, huh?" Assey said. "I hadn't got that far."

"Cats," Pam chattered on gaily, "are a sore subject here this morning. Emma Goldman went for Toots at last and we rescued Toots just as her tail feathers were going down Emma's throat. Toots was very ruffled. I thought for a moment she was going to talk—she never has, you know, since I salvaged her from Marina. Some Argentine gave her to her, or it to her—or for all I know, him to her. Look, Assey, if it's my hands you're staring at, don't stare any longer. I can explain what seems to be gone. It's my head. You see, Tim and Peg and I had one last grand final hunt for the ambergris in the cellar this morning, and I tipped over the red lead—"

"I see," said Assey. "Don't I hear someone at the door?"

There should be someone there, he knew, if Aaron's clocks were right.

"Just Peg—oh, who is it, Peg?"

"Your plumber friend, Jennings," she said. "He wants to come in. I think you're about to have him laid on, from the looks of his truck."

Pam sighed, and went back to the door. Assey stroled after her. "Earl," Pam said, "I told you—"

"Mornin'," Jennings said blithely. "I'm a mile late, but somethin' come up that required me as a selectman. Somehow my two jobs always seem to be gettin' in each other's way. If I got a pipe to fix, then I got papers to sign, and if—"

"Earl," Pam said, "I told you yesterday that Aaron and I will forgive your bashing around. You were drunk, and you weren't responsible, and if you pay the doctor's bills, that's all right. But don't meet because if I should begin to think of what you did in burning that barn—"

"I didn't! I keep telling you—"

"Then," Pam went on, "I might lose my temper, and it's a fiendish thing."

"Pam," Jennings said, "when you get to be able to relax in your new tiled tub, when you can loiter around in the porcelain luxury—"

The Octagonal Well

Assey hit his lip to keep the corners of his mouth from turning up into a broad grin. Jennings was doing well. He was almost doing too well. That loitering in the tub business was an obvious crib from his own conversation.

"You know perfectly well that it's silly to talk about tiled baths," Pam said. "We haven't water, and we can't afford electricity."

"Pam," Jennings said, "I got that all thought out. You know, it was my grandfather that built this place, and I found the original plans to home. We'll just fill in that well you got now, and the cistern, too, and then we'll go back to the original well. It's a spring, really."

"The old well, out by the barn?"

Jennings nodded. "Used to be a windmill on the top of it." He forgot you had one till I looked it up on them old plans. It's about 100 feet west of the barn, and we can build your—look, let me see Aaron, will you, an' talk with him?"

"What octagonal well?" Peggy Boone demanded.

"It's under Marina's favorite thing about the house," Pam explained. "She loved it. She let it into it so often that Aaron had the top boarded up, years ago, when we were children. Marina used to brag that she lived in an eight-sided house, with an eight-sided barn, and an eight-sided well. It never mattered then if some other child said that her father made more money than our father. Marina would just curl her lip and say, 'They didn't live in an eight-sided house with eight-sided barns and wells. There was something final about that. Well, come on up, Earl, and talk to Father. Maybe something can be done, if you think so. But we simply haven't got a cent to put into anything. Come on and advise us, Assey. Come on, Peg.'"

"Wait! I get some cigarettes—did that Timothy take all his with him?"

"I hope so," Pam said. "It's disgraceful, the way you've been bumming them and making them run out of their own fancy kind. Come on, and let's get this settled."

Jennings looked at Assey, as they followed Pam up Aaron's room.

"Talk!" Assey barely moved his lips. "Talk!"

Jennings embarked on a discussion of electricity, its cost and upkeep, and the advantages of a modern water system.

"If you think," Pam said rather crossly, "that we keep a hand pump here, why hold with these modern innovations, or were you scared of a faucet—you're crazy! No one would be more modern than I, if I were given half a chance. I personally want a house that looks like a tin biscuit box, with inserts of glass and colored bricks, and a top that tilts—Aaron, here's Earl Jennings again. Can he still be trusted to listen to his newest ideas? He seems to mean what he said about laying on water."

"What a Biblical sound that has!" Aaron said. "Come in—"

They had got to the stage of figuring things interminably on the block used by Aaron for his conversations the day before, when Assey heard a car in the drive.

He said that he usually and looked out of the window.

Pam and Aaron were too engrossed in the figures to hear his snort of annoyance.

"Be right back," Assey said, and rushed for the stairs.

Those Carrs! That Carr family! He had told them to go away and stay away, and here they were, slundering back at this time, of all times.

Before he reached the bottom of the stairs, a flood of shots rang out. [Copyright, 1938, Phoebe Atwood Taylor]

GRANGE NEWS

Patron

Patron Grange held its regular meeting in the Grange rooms June 28 with Master Franklin Kelder presiding.

Tentative plans were made to enter a grange exhibit at the county fair on August 24, the service and hospitality committee to pay the entry fee and expenses and receive any benefits from the event.

A motion was carried to have only one meeting in July and August. The dates are July 25 and August 22. A motion was carried to invite Rosendale Grange to visit us on July 25. Sister Gertrude Barahart and Brother Elton DePuy were reported ill.

The lecturer's hour began with the song "The Wreck in the Meadow" and "The Wreck in the Meadow" sung by the Grange.

and as an encore "When You and I Were Young." For the balance of the program each Granger was asked in turn to tell of something seen in their daily work. The talks developed the fact that there are several places in the town where beaver are seen and that it is not rare to see deer in the open fields. Miss Ann Davis gave a piano solo, "La Paloma," by Yradier. Miss Ann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Millard Davis and had previously given the selection at the Walter Kidd recital in the Hunt Memorial building in Ellenville the same evening.

Miss Bertha Coons of Accord, Mrs. Isaac Graham and Mrs. C. O. Sherman of Stone Ridge were the judges for the gingerbread contest. Mrs. Marion Sahler scored high with a score of 84 per cent; Mrs. Charles Osborne, second with 80 per cent; Mrs. Stanley Kelder, Ben Davis and Mrs. Percy Gaslay were tie for third place with 75 per cent. NEW YORK—This is County Fair time. And New York is getting ready for its County Fair—only it will be called the World's Fair. Out on Long Island they have torn up a lot of earth, thrown in even more to cover the shallow flats, built buildings and exploded much about that, because that was to be expected.

But now there is talk of doing over Broadway, the Broadway which—so the story goes—has changed so much in recent years. I don't know exactly what they are planning to do with it and, as a matter of fact, what I think will not matter. And I cannot imagine what they will do with it when they do change it unless they throw up a bevy of modernistic buildings.

Broadway has changed. There is no dispute here. But, the change has come gradually; so slowly that after the scene changed you suddenly realized the old days, the old picture, the old characters were no more. Yet Broadway was still Broadway.

TRUE, the gaudy motion picture palaces took over where the legitimate theater once held sway. True, but the legitimate theater still remains, a bit on the side streets, perhaps, but nevertheless very much there, and especially so during the past season.

Broadway itself today is a dirty, gaudy street. It has always been a dirty, gaudy street. There is still the picture of honky-tonk, noise and curiosity. People hurrying, people happy and people discontented. Broadway has always been a dirty and a gaudy street—a street of sorrow and disappointment. The same people, ostensibly, have pounded its pavement in yesteryears as of today.

REMEMBER when vaudeville held sway. Remember when troupers left for the hinterlands and were always glad to get back to the Palace on Broadway. They came back chuckling how good it was to get back home again, when the odds were that home really was in Wah Hoo, Neb. Broadway was changing and they didn't know it. Broadway has changed, but the place is just the same. It is still the place to which George M. Cohan, William A. Brady, Eddie Dowling and Sophie Tucker, to mention a few—and a thousand others of a day long past them come back at every opportunity.

Perhaps Broadway has changed and isn't what it used to be. But what hasn't changed? And if Broadway has changed, it hasn't changed enough to send the beat of a million feet to other streets.

Washington Daybook

By PRESTON GROVER

WASHINGTON—How long can Japan hold out?

The answer to that is sought diligently in the United States because the pressure on the U. S. government to "do something about those bombings" is growing in intensity.

Almost within the shadow of the White House one of the most important church congregations in Washington, the Foundry Methodist, adopted a resolution condemning both the Japanese bombing of London and the failure of the administration to take a more hard-handed policy. Churches and other organizations elsewhere have taken similar action, also urging boycotts.

Already the State Department has indicated it would like to see shipments of airplanes to Japan slacken off. It could stop such shipments altogether under the neutrality act, but there are a whole host of reasons why it has refused to call that measure into force.

THE fight started under circumstances leading the Japanese to believe it would be a mere weekend struggle. Instead it is rounding out nearly a year (July 7) and the cost has reached an estimated $5,000,000 a day, about two times what it costs to run the Japanese government.

Strategically Japan is in an uncomfortable plight, a military observers point out. Like Napoleon in his ill-fated expedition to Moscow, the line of communications has been desperately extended. In capturing Shanghai, Japan took China's New York. In closing in on Hankow, it is striking at China's Chicago, its central rail terminal. The bombing of Canton seems intended to stop supplies reaching Chiang's troops from that port, which is China's New Orleans. So far it has not been especially effective.

everything the others did that was not liked. Then there would be talk—all in a very friendly manner. Sometimes one of them had been doing something to bother another of which he had no idea. I'll explain further."

Aviation Course Planned by YMCA

The Kingston Y. M. C. A. today announced a proposed five-week course in Aerial Navigation to start Tuesday, July 5, at 7:30
p. m.

In co-operation with the Y. M.
C. A., Ferd Doremus, a graduate of the Ryan School of Aeronautics, will give a two-hour instruction
period two evenings a week.
Those who are interested in this fine opportunity of instruction in the elementary basis of flying are asked to be at the "Y" Tuesday.
Instructor Doremus has been granted a special rating by the Bureau of Air Commerce, which qualifies him to teach. During the past winter he had similar classes in the Y. M. C. A. in San Diego, Cal. He received his instruction from Lt. Commander Gray, now a retired naval officer at San Diego. Commander Gray acted as navigator from San Diego to New York city for Richard Archibald last year when he made his epic flight in the large consolidated flying boat.

In talking with Raymond Garra-ghan, he offered his backing and interest in helping to secure enough students.

Coffee or Tea

Fruity Spread

4 cups seeded
red cherries
4 cups strawberries
2 cups dried
pineapple
2 cups dried
apricots
10 cups granulated sugar

Mix all the ingredients together and stand for one hour. Boil gently until the spread thickens.
(About one hour will be necessary.) Pour into sterilized glasses.
Seal, when cool, with melted paraffin.

Chocolate Fudge Squares

1/2 cup fat
1 1/2 cups light
brown sugar
2 eggs, beaten
2 squares chocolate, melted
1 teaspoon
vanilla
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup sour milk
2 cups flour
2 cups sugar
2 squares chocolate
2 tablespoons butter

Cream fat and sugar. Add the rest of the ingredients and beat for three minutes. Pour a one-inch layer into a shallow pan which has been lined with waxed paper.
Bake for 20 minutes in a moderately slow oven. (About 325 degrees.) Cool and frost.

Frosting

2 cups sugar
2 squares chocolate
2 tablespoons
butter
1/2 cup water
1/2 teaspoon
vanilla
1/2 cup broken
nuts

Boil gently, stirring frequently, sugar, chocolate, butter and water. When a soft ball forms when a portion is tested in cold water, remove the frosting from the fire and do not touch it for twenty minutes. Add vanilla and beat until creamy. Cover cake and sprinkle with nuts, pressing them well down into the soft frosting. When the frosting is firm cut the cake into squares.

Maspeth Concern Gives Low Bid

Two bids were received for erection of 700 feet of steel railing with ornamental light posts on the Wallkill river bridge at Wallkill. Bids were opened this morning at the office of the clerk of the Board of Supervisors at 10:30 o'clock with the Vulcan Rail and Construction Co., of Maspeth, submitting the low bid of $3,700 and the North American Iron and Steel Co., of 136 17th street, Brooklyn, submitting a figure of $4,560.

Two other firms, Low Pipe Railing Corp., of Long Island City, and Heckerman Iron Works, of Syracuse, requested specifications but did not bid on the job.

The contract calls for the erection of a low steel rail on the new bridge to replace the present temporary rail. Included in the contract are four iron light posts on either side of the bridge.

Wallkill river bridge at Wallkill was found to be in a bad state of repair and last year the County Highway Department undertook the re-building of the span. The old concrete rail and walk was removed and the earth fill taken out and the re-enforced concrete arches were repaired and faced and new fill was made for the roadway. The old concrete rails are now to be replaced by steel to lighten the load on the bridge. A temporary bridge down-stream was in use during re-building operations. The new bridge is now in use.

Action on the bids received today will be taken later and the contract awarded.

Estimate Cost

Watkins Glen, N. Y., June 30.—The senior class at the Watkins Glen High School found that it cost each of the members a little more than $50 to attend the school this year. The senior budget included a trip to Washington at $35; class ring, $8.50; year book, $1.50; photographs, $1.50; invitations and name cards, $3; annual ball, $2; cap and gown, $2.50; and miscellaneous, $5.

The Commonwealth of the Philippines will utilize 60,000 square feet of space in the Pacific area at the 1939 World's Fair of the west.

Another Taylor Wins

Dansville, N. Y., June 30 (AP)—Central High School seniors recently selected Robert Taylor (no relation to the film star) as winner of the all-around merit silver cup awarded annually by the American Legion. Taylor is chairman of the County Student Association, president of the high school student association, prominent in school activities, all-county football tackle and star on the basketball and baseball teams.

Crawls From Woods

Hornell, N. Y., June 30 (AP)—For 34 years, every day with hardly an exception, Arthur Goodnoe, 56, of Whiteville, tramped into the woods near here to cut trees—without an accident. The other day his ax caught in the limb of a tree, was deflected and cut a deep gash in his ankle. He was near death from loss of blood when he finally arrived at a farm after crawling from the woods.

Fund Remains

Elmira, N. Y., June 30 (AP)—The city of Elmira regards the recent conference of New York State Mayors and other municipal officers as a good investment. A fund of $500 set aside by the city council for the convention went back into the treasury untouched after advertisements sold in souvenir brochures paid all expenses.

Seeks Aid of Utica Police For Valuable Masonic Ring

Dr. James W. Graves, of Herkimer, has sought the aid of Utica police in searching for a Masonic ring which he believes was stolen from his home a year ago.

He values the ring highly. He believed one of his cocker spaniels had swallowed it. He had both animals X-rayed and found nothing.

He believed it might have fallen into the furnace via a waste basket. He had the furnace dismantled.

Now he has asked police to watch pawnshops.

Bridge Repairs At Mt. Marion

Work is being carried on by county Highway Department forces on repairs to the high stone arch bridge located on the Mt. Marion four corners road leading to route 9-W at Sauer's bridge just beyond the top of the hill above the Esopus creek. This high stone arch bridge erected many years ago was found to be badly bulged along the side-walls and it was found necessary to make major repairs. Crossing a short ravine the old arches of the bridge are 35 to 40 feet in height. The walls which were badly bulged outward are undergoing repairs but traffic is being maintained.

New Salem Fill

The culvert on the New Salem road at the old Diamond ice house site is now in and the work of making the fill is going on. Traffic has been halted over this road for the past several weeks since the causeway over which the road crossed the creek flowing out of the pond caved in during the night. Residents of New Salem desiring to drive to Eddyville or St. Remy were compelled to detour by way of Port Ewen.

RARE COLORS PUT INTO GLASS BY SUN

Dealer in Antiques Hopes to Build New Industry.

Imperial, Calif.—As the result of his having picked up a piece of broken glass one day in the Mojave desert, A. J. Clark, dealer in antiques and bric-a-brac, hopes to build a new American industry.

It will be the manufacture of costume jewelry and fancy glassware from glass that has been changed in color by the sun, sometimes over a period of 35 to 40 years.

Clark came to the Imperial valley four years ago from Oceanside. Fond of hunting and tramping, he and his wife spent long days walking over the desert near here.

One day Clark noticed a piece of glassware lying on the desert. It had been exposed to the sun for many years. It had changed to a peculiarly attractive violet color. He took it home for study and eventually it became the first of a collection of 4,000 pieces, most of which are placed in his garden awaiting further color changes by the sun.

The collection includes about everything there is in thrown-away glassware, such as cut-glass vases, candlesticks, every imaginable type of bottle and glassware in general.

The pieces are set out in odd designs where the sun can play on them all day, constituting a veritable glass garden almost as beautiful as one of flowers.

The Clarks have ascertained that it takes years for the sun to change the color of a piece of glass and sometimes it never changes.

They have, for example, a pair of glass doorknobs, one of which has turned to violet and the other to amber. In general all the pieces of glass turn to either one of the other of these colors or else remain unchanged.

A few of the pieces the Clarks have disposed of are a drinking glass made from the bottom of a ginger-ale bottle, turned to a color that it is impossible to produce in ordinary glass coloring and ink-stands from other pieces.

They are in no hurry, however, to sell the stock now coloring in their garden, for the longer they keep the glass the more beautiful the coloring becomes.

Ethiopia Presents Italy With Bachelor Problem

Rome.—White men in Addis Ababa outnumber white women almost two to one. Out of a total white population of 16,950 there are 5,296 women.

This condition is considered so grave that it has called forth editorial comment from Italian newspaper men. A correspondent of "The Turin Stampa" offered statistics showing that in one year 11 births, 121 deaths and only seven marriages occurred among the Italians of Addis Ababa. This observer declared that 60 per cent of the Italian men in Ethiopia are bachelors.

The Italian government is doing its best to solve this problem. For some time wives and future wives have been sent down. In many cases single girls go down to work and find husbands instead. The government feels that this is the only way to assure the future of the Italian race in the East African empire.

College Has Art School Along Cafeteria Method

Minneapolis.—Students at a new school on the University of Minnesota campus believe in Utopia.

The school is free and the students may come and go as they please and work in whatever they please. The instructors are not permitted to offer any criticism, merely suggestion and advice.

The school is the new art laboratory, fully equipped for the use of all students who have leanings toward painting, sculpture, handicraft work or other arts.

The laboratory already promises to become one of the most popular of the university's extra-curricular activities.

Starfish Are Profitable to Chesapeake Oystermen

Washington.—Chesapeake oystermen agree with the adage that it's an ill wind that blows nobody good. The oystermen had been troubled by starfish, enemy of the oyster beds.

Now the bureau of fisheries reports that the oystermen have found that starfish can be converted into fish-meal for feeding live stock. Oystermen have dredged as much as 400 bushels of starfish per day per boat this year, and have converted the pests into meal at a profit.

Beware, Faculties, Here's Your Finish!

Schenectady, N. Y.—Reading books properly would abolish college faculties, Dr. Roswell G. Ham, president of Mount Holyoke college, said in a Union college chapel lecture.

"If everyone could learn how to read a book properly and how to use it as an effective tool for daily living, the faculties in colleges could easily go out of existence without any loss to society," he said.

To Hold Fair at Shawangunk
Shawangunk, June 30.—The annual Independence Day Celebration and Church Fair will be held at the Reformed Church here on the evening of July 4. A chicken dinner will be served every hour starting at 5 p. m. Music will be by the Montgomery Band. Tickets for the dinner will be available on the grounds.

Charged With Non-Support
Joseph P. Oates of 1324 Ogden avenue, Bronx, was arrested at Bruynarick yesterday by Sergeant Hulse and Trooper Lynn Baker on a charge of non-support. He was brought to the Ulster county jail where he was held for New York city police.

Stiffer Tax Proposals
Washington, June 30 (AP)—Support for proposals to impose stiffer income taxes came today from Senator King (D., Utah), ranking majority member of the Senate finance committee. King said it would be necessary to increase rates on incomes between $25,000 and $50,000 and that exemptions might be lowered.

'No Speeding Allowed'
Buffalo, N. Y., June 30 (AP)—

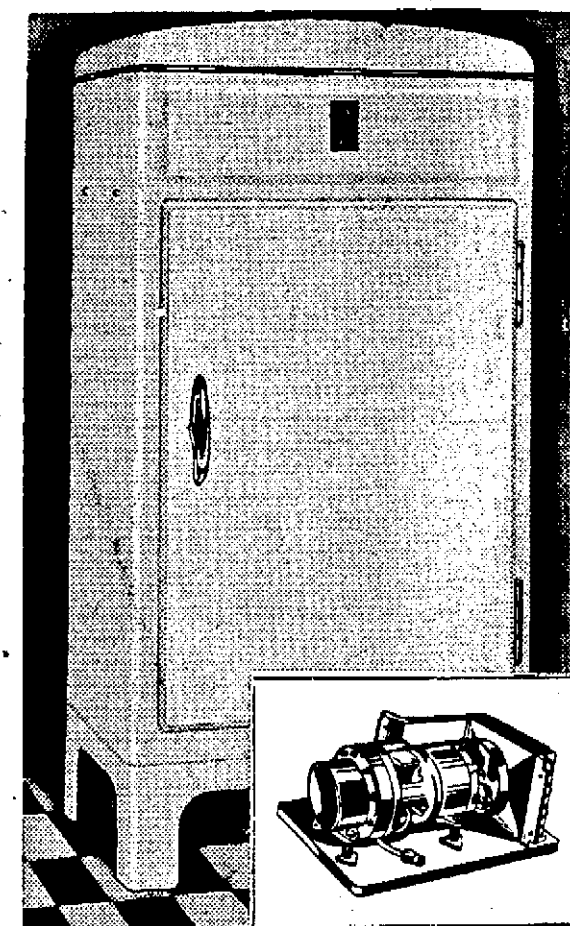

This city's police department loses no chance to "plug" its traffic safety campaign which has cut the accident rate in half this year. It's softball team has mottos sewed on the backs of the players.

How To Treat A Wife

When some time or other the better half, brother, seems peevish and all out of tone, Don't get in a dither and argue with her.

Just leave the poor lassie alone. The Mrs. has worries, and those little flurries.

Are some of a million or two? It might be the baby, but hicker, maybe.

The cause of the trouble is you. You muss up the kitchen, you growl at the stitchein.

That makes of your collar a saw. You have indigestion, then side-step the question.

By saying the carrots were raw. Complaining of trouble is just playing double.

So hold up the chatter and take it. It's harder than thunder to patch up a blunder.

Much better it is not to make it.

The burglar crept into the house as quietly as possible, but he made a certain amount of noise. Suddenly he stiffened and listened. A woman's voice came from the floor above:

"If you don't take off your shoes when you sink into the house there's going to be trouble. Go back and take them off at once. I can't think why I ever married a man like you."

City Siren—You're certainly bashful, my man. You drop your eyes when I gaze into them.

Country Fellow—Bashful, nothing! I'm looking at your legs.

The proprietor of a big store noticed an assistant dozing up against the wall of one of the departments. He consulted the manager about the matter.

Manager—I can't do a thing with him. I've had him in three different departments, and he dozes all day long.

Proprietor—Put him at the pajama counter, and fasten a card on him with the words: "Our pajamas are of such superior quality that even the man who sells them cannot keep awake."

Sturdy Outlines Foods to Rotary

The story of how the nation's foods are grown and harvested and sealed in all their freshness was told to members of Kingston's Rotary Club at the Governor Clinton Hotel Wednesday at the noon meeting of the club.

Carlton F. Sturdy, a representative of the American Can Co., presented a most interesting description of the growth and development of the great food industry of today. Beginning with the cultivation of the seed and the great research work sponsored by the industry, Mr. Sturdy described the fascinating story of the nation's harvests from the garden to the finished products in the store. He told how machinery uncannily beyond belief does the work without the touch of human hands; how foods just a few minutes from the garden are prepared and sealed in all their goodness in the twinkling of an eye.

The "tin can," Mr. Sturdy explained, is not made of tin but of the finest pure steel and is turned out by magic machines at the rate of 325 per minute. The proper way to buy and use canned foods was interestingly described and the many new improvements and varieties of foods now in the market explained.

Mr. Sturdy devotes his entire time to the lecture platform and addresses groups all over the United States who write in requesting his talks.

President "Jim" Loughran presided at the meeting, which will be his last as president of the club. Next week Eugene Pennington, division manager of Cates Service Oil Co., will take over the job which Mr. Loughran has been doing for the past year. The Rev. Clarence Brown will take over the duties of secretary, replacing Emil Boessneck. John Morrison and Stanley Matthews are the new members of the Board of Directors.

PORT EWEN

Port Ewen, June 30—Pythian Hall was filled with relatives and friends Wednesday evening when 14 members of School No. 13 were graduated. The commencement program was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

A softball game between the Men's Community Club and the Kingston Wurts Street Baptist Church team will be played at Loughran Park, Kingston, Friday evening.

Pimento, Ginger, Other

Plant Types in Jamaica
Some 2,100 varieties of plant life are to be found in the island of Jamaica so that it is referred to, the world over, as the "botanical garden of the New World."

Pimento and annatto are prominent among the island's products—but pimento is not what the American housewife knows by name, being the common allspice, the berries of which grow in clusters on trees some 30 feet tall. Annatto, not familiar to the average tourist, is a reddish berry which, when boiled, yields an oily extract used as a dye.

The famed Jamaica ginger grows abundantly in patches on the red hillsides. The plant somewhat resembles the currant bush, but only the root is valuable, the tops being crushed and used again as seed. A good yield, Jamaicans say, is 2,000 pounds of ginger to the acre.

Orchids, aces and acres of them, grow wild in this land of enchantment. The showy three-petaled flowers of lavender shade stand out in beautiful contrast to the white yucca, the aloe and other tropical blossoms. Then there is the fragrant bougainvillea, the brilliant poinciana, the melon cactus, often called the Turk's Cap, and the Woman Dildos, which produces wool along with the flowers and fruit.

Fish Can Give Electric Shock

There are several species of fish equipped with organs capable of giving an electric shock; these include the electric eel, electric catfish, electric ray or torpedo, electric dogfish, etc. The electric eel is an eel-like fresh water fish of Central and South America, which has the power to discharge electric shocks strong enough to paralyze or kill small fish or mammals and even to stun human beings or large animals like horses and cattle. These fishes, related to the carps and catfishes, attain a length of seven or eight feet. The German traveler Baron von Humboldt found that natives of Brazil and Guiana drove horses into the ponds and streams containing electric eels, in order that the eels might exhaust their electric powers, after which the fishes were caught and used for food. The same writer claimed that the shock sometimes caused the horses to drown.

Mrs. Meinhardt Was Interpreter At Swedish Rites

Mrs. Harry L. Meinhardt of this city was one of the official interpreters Monday at Wilmington, Del., when Crown Prince Gustav Adolf of Sweden and party visited that city on the Delaware for the purpose of presenting to the people of this country through President Roosevelt a monument commemorating the 300th anniversary of the establishment of the first Swedish settlement in America. The monument was presented by Prince Bertil, because of the illness of the Crown Prince and was accepted by the President.

Also acting as one of the interpreters was Karl Wasson of Wilmington, formerly a resident of this city while he was employed as a mechanical engineer at the Hercules Powder plant at Port Jervis.

Fireworks Sale Friday, Saturday

Under the provisions of the local fireworks ordinance adopted by the Common Council fireworks may be sold on the two days preceding the Fourth of July. As the Fourth this year falls on a Monday dealers will be permitted to sell fireworks on Friday and Saturday.

Insects.
The fantastic theory that insects might some day dominate the world, sometimes advanced by imaginative scientists, would become a reality if it were not for birds, according to the American Wildlife Institute. "Birds constitute the main check against reproduction of insects," points out C. M. Palmer, Jr., assistant secretary of the Institute. "If that check were removed, insects would multiply so rapidly that they would clean the world of all vegetation, leaving man to starve in a barren, deserted waste."

Don't Keep on Having Constipation!

If constipation's got you down—so you feel heavy, tired and dopey—it's time you did something about it. And something more than taking a physic! You should get at the cause of the trouble.

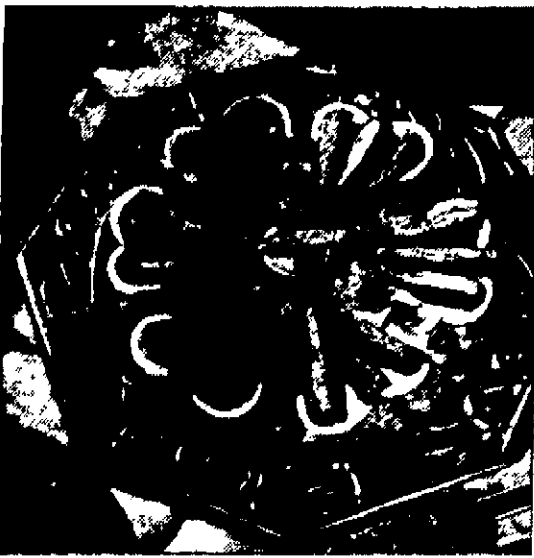

If you eat only the things most people do, the chances are that a very simple fact causes your constipation—you don't get enough "bulk." And "bulk" doesn't mean heavy food. It means a kind of food that isn't consumed in the body, but leaves a soft "bulky" mass in the intestines and helps a bowel movement.

If this is your trouble, eat crisp crunchy Kellogg's All-Bran for breakfast every day and drink plenty of water. All-Bran is not only rich in "bulk"—it also contains the natural intestinal tonic, vitamin B.

Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. Sold by every grocer.

Designed for Eating

Some foods are designed for looks; but the foods I like best are those that are designed for eating—and when we find a double combination—a dish that is designed both for looks and for eating, well, it's then that I'm for serving it often.

DEVILED EGGS RUNC

DEVILED EGGS RUNC

Cut 6 hard cooked eggs in half, lengthwise. Remove and mash yolks. Drain oil from can of sardines and add sardines to egg yolks, together with 2 teaspoons prepared mustard, 1/4 teaspoon salt and 1/2 teaspoon vinegar. Use to stuff hollows of egg whites. Place on top of bowl containing well-seasoned potato salad and garnish with sardines as illustrated.

It's An Art

Did you ever watch a salad chef, or any chef for that matter, mix a salad? With them it's an art and one I wish more homemakers could acquire, though I must admit I've never been able to master it. Maybe it's because I'm in too much of a hurry to taste the finished product, or get too nervous. Anyhow, I always flip the elusive greens out on the table cloth, oil gets on the handle of the mixing tools, and well, everything just conspires to make my salad mixing "art" look like a lost one; but if you can master it, you'll win the admiration of all your guests. I've read countless articles telling how it should be done, and probably you have, too, so I'll not go into that now. Instead, here are some salad dressing recipes which I hope you'll try on summer fruits and vegetables.

MAYONNAISE

1 teaspoon dry mustard, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon granulated sugar, 1 egg yolk, 1/2 teaspoon cayenne pepper, 3 tablespoons vinegar and 1 cup olive oil.

Mix dry ingredients and add egg yolk. Beat well and gradually add olive oil, drop by drop until dressing begins to thicken. Thin with vinegar and add more oil, alternating in this manner until vinegar and oil are used up. The egg white may then be added, beaten stiff, to make a larger quantity.

ITALIAN DRESSING

1 teaspoon tomato ketchup, 1/2 teaspoon paprika, 1/2 teaspoon onion juice, 1 tablespoon vinegar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard and 4 tablespoons olive oil.

Mix dry ingredients thoroughly, add ketchup and onion juice and blend well. Slowly mix in olive oil and vinegar, stirring constantly.

NOVELTY SALAD DRESSING

1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 1/2 teaspoons granulated sugar, 1/2 teaspoon paprika, 1/2 tablespoon pear juice, 1 1/2 tablespoons vinegar, 5 tablespoons cottage cheese and 3 tablespoons olive oil.

Cream cottage cheese and add to the salt, sugar and paprika, which have been thoroughly mixed. Blend in the pear juice, then add the vinegar and olive oil slowly, mixing until smooth.

Dishes for Kitchen Deserters

Every homemaker likes to be a kitchen deserter during the hottest days of summer and I'd like to help you do this. Perhaps these recipes will do the trick:

MOLDED PEAR SALAD

3 fresh pears, 1 package lime gelatin, 2 1/4 cups boiling water, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1/2 cup crushed pineapple

Hint

Many homemakers keep a roll of waxed paper in the refrigerator to use to cover left-over foods. Paper hand towels save summer laundering.

Dissolve lime gelatin in boiling water and add lemon juice. Pour one-half into a pan and let set in the refrigerator while preparing the pears. Fill cavity in each pear half with crushed pineapple, set upon chilled layer of gelatin and cover with remaining gelatin. Serve on lettuce with mayonnaise dressing or a fruit salad dressing.

Sauce Symphony

Webster tells us that "symphony" means "harmony of any kind." We usually think of the word in connection with music; but why shouldn't it have a place in everyday meal planning? Now fresh fruit sauces with desserts are my idea of summer symphony. Try these recipes. Maybe you'll agree.

MAPLE PINEAPPLE SAUCE

1 1/2 cups (1 can) sweetened condensed milk, 1/2 cup maple syrup, 1/2 cup crushed pineapple, 1/2 teaspoon salt and 1/2 cup water.

Thoroughly blend sweetened condensed milk, maple syrup and salt in a heavy saucepan. Cook over low heat about five minutes or until mixture thickens, stirring constantly. Cool. Add pineapple and water and beat well.

STRAWBERRY PINEAPPLE SAUCE

1 cup crushed cooked pineapple, 2 cups

RENNET CUSTARD WITH STRAWBERRY PINEAPPLE SAUCE

washed strawberries, 1 1/2 cups sugar, 2 tablespoons granulated tapioca and 1 tablespoon lemon juice. Combine ingredients in order given and cook until syrupy. Serve over vanilla renet custard dessert or ice cream.

Couple Still Fails To Name Captor

The identity of the man who abducted Jason E. Carle, Jr., and Miss Marjorie Smith last Friday, is still shrouded in mystery, although the city police, sheriff's office and State Troopers have been working day and night on the case.

A number of suspects have been picked up and taken to the city hall, but they could not be identified as the man wanted by either of the young people.

Weiss Recuperating

Peter Weiss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Weiss of East Chester street, is resting as comfortably as can be expected, following an operation at the Kingston Hospital. The young man was graduated last week from Tri-State College, and returned home when he was suddenly taken ill and removed to the hospital.

Injured By June

Chicago (AP)—June has become a jinx month for Paul Hough, 11. For the sixth consecutive year he has been injured during that month. His latest accident occurred while he helped push a truck stalled at a picnic. He slipped under the wheels and his skull and a leg were fractured.

Travel, big game hunting and native crafts will be emphasized in the exhibit of French Indochina at the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition on Treasure Island.

Friday Last Day For CCC Listings

Youths of Kingston who are eligible for the C. C. C. camps and who desire to attend them this summer, must enroll on Friday or Saturday at the Board of Public Welfare office in the City Home on Flatbush avenue. Just where the boys who enroll will be sent is not stated.

There has been no quota assigned to Kingston, but the welfare board has been notified to inform those in charge of the camps how many desired to register from Kingston.

Inauguration Service

Sergeant Jules H. Eggers, U. S. Army recruiting officer for Dutchess and Ulster counties, with offices in the Post Office buildings in Poughkeepsie and Kingston, N. Y., announces the inauguration of a Regular Army Reserve effective July 1, 1938, for any man who has served at least one year in the Regular Army and who has been honorably discharged therefrom, who is less than 36 years of age and unmarried. Such ex-service men may be re-enlisted in the Regular Army Reserve.

The revolver was invented by Colt in 1835.

To Attend Bar Convention

Five members of the Ulster County Bar Association will attend the State Bar summer convention which opens at Saranac Lake this afternoon. Those who will attend are Senator Charles W. Walton, David Schoentag, Corporation Counsel John M. Cahlin, Joseph Porman and Assistant District Attorney N. LeVan Haver.

Gospel Meetings

The monthly Gospel fellowship meetings will be held at Eagle's Rest Friday evening, July 1, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Huthstener. All are welcome.

FOOD FOR THE HARVEST ARMY In the Texas wheat country is rationed out at the chuck wagons, and the lunch table may be most anything: the ground and even the broad back of a fellow worker (left of the forks). In harvesting the wheat, binders tie the stalks into bundles, and separators winnow out the grain and blow the straw into great piles.

AMERICAN RICE FOR U. S. TABLES is goal of rice farmers in Arkansas and other Southern states where new fields have been opened. This irrigated field of rice is near Goodwin, Ark., where—farmers say—2,500 gallons of water per minute will flow across this land for 90 days. Workers keep the fields clear of foreign matter, prepare for the fall rice harvest.

WANTING TO GO into their dance, little English youngsters pranced nervously in London where they did a lamba dance at a benefit for a hospital for children.

At The Theatres

Today

Kingston: Double features. "Hold That Kiss" is the one, starring Maureen O'Sullivan, and "Goodbye Broadway," featuring Alice Brady, is the other. Preview.

Broadway: "Rascals," with Jane Withers as a sly cupid, also Rochelle Hudson, Borrah Minevitch and his gang and Robert Wilcox. In this picture Jane travels with a band of nomads, singing, dancing and furnishing the life of the caravan. She finally finds herself the matchmaker in a romance.

Orpheum: Bob Burns, as an Arkansas hill billy gifted with the peculiar power of writing catchy song numbers in his sleep without knowing it, and Jack Oakie as a broken-down Tin Pan Alley composer, have the top comedy roles in RKO Radio's musical "Radio City Reveals." Kenny Baker, Ann Miller, Victor Moore, Milton Berle, Helen Broderick, Jane Froman, the dancing team of Buster West and Melissa Mason, and other favorites have prominent roles. Hal Kemp and his orchestra have a featured spot.

Tomorrow

Kingston: "Cocoanut Grove," the story of a romance under a phony moon, full of gay and sparkling comedy. This picture coming direct from the Paramount in New York city, stars Harriet Hilliard, Fred MacMurray and the Yacht Club Boys.

Broadway: Same. Also preview of "Three Comrades." Based on the impressive novel by Erich Maria Remarque, "Three Comrades" is a story of three heroic war veterans who face the dangers of post war peace, and pledge their friendship in the new battle to rehabilitate themselves after the awful experiences of war. The narrative is primarily a love drama, charged with the vibrant atmosphere of post war Europe. The three comrades are Robert Taylor, Franchot Tone and Robert Young. Margaret Sullivan is the woman who provides the beauty of a doomed romance with Taylor.

Orpheum: "Over the Wall," a prison story about a boy who found it hard to take orders and battled the world alone even behind bars until his sister came to his rescue and made him realize his folly. Dick Foran and June Travis are the stars. The accompanying feature is "Law of the Plains," one of those western thrillers starring Charles Starrett.

Bishop's Rock

The first land sighted by people who journey to England or France is Bishop's rock, a small member of the archipelago known as the Scilly islands, 25 miles beyond England's Land's End. The legendary title of the "Land of Lyonesse" indicates the Scillies' connection with the romances of King Arthur and the tragedy of Tristan and Isolde. The Gulf Stream winds in among these islands, and although they are as far north as the "cold" tip of Newfoundland, the winter thermometer rarely goes below 46. The climate is always temperate.

Wear Animal Badges

The King's Own Royal Lancaster regiment wears the Lion of England for a badge; the Royal Warwickshires wear an antelope; the King's Liverpool, West Yorkshire and Royal West Kent, a horse; the Buffs, the Scottish Rifles, Royal Berks, North Staffs and York and Lancasters, a dragon. Other regiments use the tiger, elephant, eagle, stag and cat for badges.

Hollywood

Sights And Sounds

By Robbin Coons

HOLLYWOOD—The cynics who believe that "Gone With the Wind" will never get going—with the wind or anything else—should take heart from "The Miracle." "Gone" is scheduled now for a fall beginning. In celebration, if and when, we shall have a private moment of silence as the cameras turn, and all and sundry are invited to join.

The same tributes will be forthcoming when and if "The Miracle" gets under way. For Selznick, sole proprietor of "Gone," is but a piker in delays compared to the Warners, sole owners of "The Miracle."

The Warners have been "scheduling" that spectacular piece, off and on, since 1926. But nothing happened. Nothing ever happened.

Nuns' Club

Except tentative casting, of course. The girls who have almost played the role of the Nun in the play could form a pleasant club. Casting for the more revolting of the pictures that brought the Legion of Decency into being. And Barbara left the lot.

After Loretta, it was Barbara Stanwyck, Barbara, presumably in preparation, was cast as the cheap little lot of "Baby Face," one of the more revolting of the pictures that brought the Legion of Decency into being. And Barbara left the lot.

Next came Marian Marsh, the spirituelle type. She looked like Dolores Costello. Any girl that looked like Dolores could play the Nun. It was a press-agent's "natural," as indeed "The Miracle" was. Sometimes we suspect the boys, stuck for a new angle on a new player, would "cast" her in the play without consulting the front office.

After Marian, Jean Muir. There wasn't any role too good for little Jean. But that was before Jean started expressing opinions freely, on this and that, and generally getting herself in the dog-house.

Next in line—we're getting up to modern times now—was Josephine Hutchinson.

Maybe...

Now once again "The Miracle" is on the schedule—and the Nun, definitely and finally, is Bette Davis, like her predecessors the current Warner fair-haired girl. But this time, seriously, they mean business. The picture will go into production immediately after Bette finishes "The Sisters," and she has begun on that.

Our Growing Population

How To Get In Jail
Gallup, N. M. (AP)—An itinerant, passing through Gallup, visited the sheriff's office and asked to sleep in the jail over the week-end and "rest up a bit." The sheriff told him there were no accommodations except for prisoners. So the itinerant threw a door-stop through the door glass. He got 30 days.

Rings Smash Window
Oklahoma City, Okla. (AP)—When the rear tire of a city truck blew out on a downtown street it hurled the two remaining rims 20 feet across the sidewalk, through a show window and against the back wall of a store, 60 feet from the door. Nobody was injured, because the accident occurred at midnight.

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

(By The Associated Press)

He Didn't Forget
Sylvia, N. C.—When occupants of a big motor car drove away from a drugstore without paying for their drinks, Soda Clerk Tom Wilson commented dejectedly he'd have to charge it to experience. But several days later the car came back.

Out stepped Gov. Clyde R. Hoey, who plunked down the cash with the explanation, "I had a lapse of memory."

Marksman
Tombek, N. J.—A thrush went foraging for food on the courts of the West Englewood Tennis Club only to be killed by a tennis ball. Ted McKinley was serving. His cannonball service felled the bird as it flew low across the court. The plaintive notes of the mate in a nearby tree could be heard as McKinley turned a spadeful of earth and buried his victim.

No Sale
Los Angeles—William Zion, 53, waited till street car No. 1324 came along. He boarded the car, showed a bill of sale to the conductor for No. 1324, and demanded his property. The conductor referred Zion to the police bureau which now seeks the "salesman" who took Zion's $100.

High-Voltage Sparking
Spokane, Wash.—A pair of lovebirds pigeons rubbed heads—presto—4,000 Spokane homes went lightless.

B. M. Merrill, superintendent of the Washington Water Power Company, said he believed the birds had attempted their beak-rubbing while perched on parallel high tension lines. A short-circuit resulted.

The Lydians were the first to use gold currency.

To Give Free Tickets

The children of Kingston and vicinity will doubtless thrill to the announcement by William G. Martin, chairman of the show committee of Excelsior Volunteer Firemen, that free ride tickets will be distributed tomorrow and Saturday by a representative of Endy Bros. Shows, Inc., which are appearing all next week on Powell's Lot under the auspices of the fire laddies.

Fears Felt for Adventurers

Green River, Utah, June 30 (AP)—Rainy weather aroused fears here today for the safety of a scientific expedition of four men and two women which set out 10 days ago to "shoot" the dangerous canyons of the Colorado river. Rivermen believed the group was darning the Colorado river rapids, one of the most dangerous laps.

Painting Up

The wholesale office and warehouse building of the Herzog Supply Co., the former Mitchell House, corner North Front and Fair streets, is being given a new coat of brown paint.

IT'S A MAN'S WORK—and woman's, too—during wheat-harvesting time near Dallas, Tex. These wheat-shockers know the knack of arranging bundled grain. Speed and skill count in the race to harvest nation's great "breadbasket."

MAIDEN'S PRAYER finds answer in "beautiful" Bob Taylor of the film, seen in New York's Versailles restaurant exchanging pointers on the manly art of fisticuffs with young Jimmy Boggs. Taylor's dinner companion at the club was Jimmy Broderick, New York detective, who's reported to have been showing movie idol tricks about self-defense.

Picnic As You Go . . .

To celebrate the Fourth! Now there's a thought and not a bad one at that. Why not pack the picnic basket the night before, get everything ready for an early start, and picnic-breakfast on the way? If you've the time, build a fire, cook ham or bacon and eggs and toast some bread. If you haven't, take along a thermos bottle of coffee, another thermos container of hot cereal; or a package of cold cereal, some crushed fruits and a bottle of cream to serve over them. Cookies, doughnuts, tomato and pineapple juice will make a very satisfying breakfast for everyone. Don't forget, picnic as you go!

day with you, spot decided upon, even the road maps checked—and then . . . find yourself thrust upon the mercies of a rainy day?

Of course, you can make the best of it, or make the most of it, just as you will. I think it's fun to make the most of it, because I've really had some grand times on rainy day picnics. Sometimes rainy days turn out to be damp, cold, disa tasty cream sauce, bone and flake the salmon and mix together. Then pour over toast or rolls or cereal biscuits and serve.

LIMA LOAF

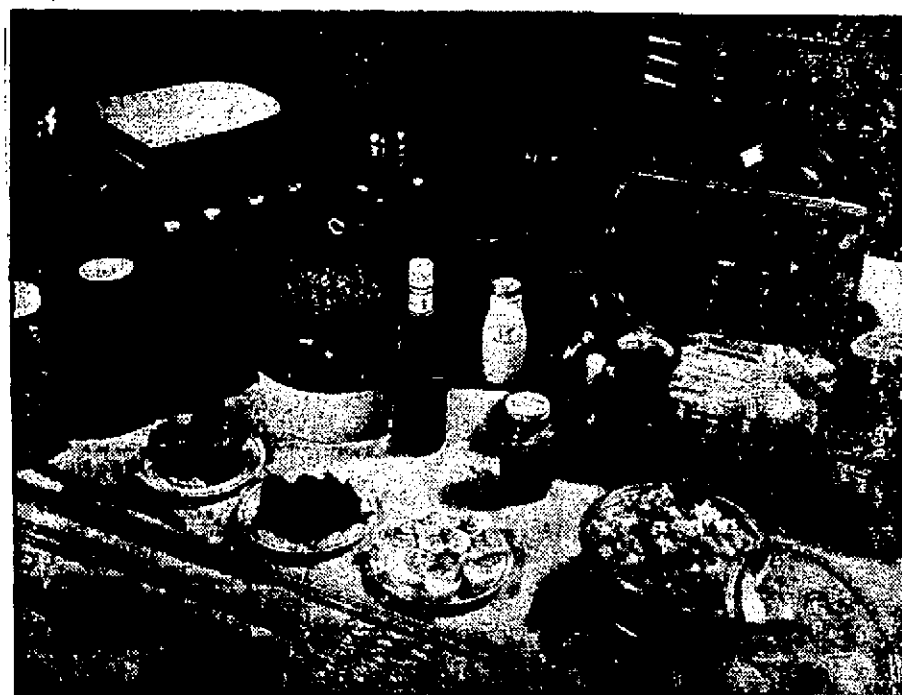

Beans are easy to warm; tomatoes may always be grilled or stewed. Make plenty of hot coffee and tea, and grill the sandwiches.

Nowadays homemakers frequently place soup in the thermos jug for picnic outings; but whether you do or not, I'm sure you must have several cans of soup in the house. Some homemakers insist on serving one kind of soup at a time; but modern homemakers are learning more and more varieties of soups that may be made by combining two or more soup flavors. Since this is a hodge-podge, rainy day picnic, dump all the different kinds together to make volume. Then taste. You may have to add additional seasonings—a little Worcestershire or thick seasoning sauce, a bit of lemon juice, a little grated cheese, some pimientos, as well as salt, pepper and maybe ketchup. Stir well, heat thoroughly and serve.

LIMA LOAF

2 cups cooked, dried lima beans, 1 cup soft bread crumbs, 1 egg, well beaten, 2 tablespoons minced onion, 2 tablespoons tomato ketchup, 1/2 teaspoon salt and 1/8 teaspoon pepper.

Combine ingredients and turn into a buttered bread pan. Bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) about 25 minutes. To serve, unmold in center of platter, place strips of crisp bacon over the top and garnish with slices of fried tomatoes.

A PICNIC LUNCH FOR FAIR OR RAINY WEATHER

Who Cares for Rainy Weather When We Are All Together?

Did you ever get all set for a picnic, lunch all packed, guests ready to share the agreeable days and you may not feel exactly like eating cold food. Well, don't let that worry you in the least, for there are just dozens of ways in which you can "heat-up" the picnic lunch. If you have a can or two of salmon in the house, make

Local Death Record

Arthur Sheeley, 84, of Napanoch, died early this morning in the Veterans' Memorial Hospital in Ellenville, of injuries sustained when knocked down by an automobile while walking near his home on Saturday. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Funeral services for Margaret L. Jones, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Jones, of Lawrenceville street, were held Wednesday afternoon from the W. N. Conner Funeral Home, 236 Fair street. The Rev. Russell S. Gaesle, pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, officiated. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery, Stone Ridge.

Mrs. Margaret M. Mower, a life long resident of the town of Saugerties died at High Falls on Tuesday. She was in her 90th year. One daughter, Mrs. William Etheridge, and one granddaughter, Evelyn Etheridge, are the only survivors. The funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Mrs. Etheridge's home. Burial in Katsbaan cemetery.

John M. O'Connor, who has been ill for a long time, died at his home in Quarryville Wednesday morning in his 62nd year. He is survived by a wife and three sons, John O'Connor, James O'Connor and Edward O'Connor, all of Quarryville. He was a stonecutter by trade. The funeral will be held in St. Patrick's Church, Quarryville, Saturday at 10:00 a. m. Burial St. Mary's cemetery, Barclay Heights.

Joseph M. Franz, died suddenly at his home in Shultis Corners, town of Saugerties on Wednesday, June 29. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Emma Franz, a son, Joseph O. of West Hurley, two daughters, Mrs. Monroe Longendyke of Woodstock and Mrs. Margaret Morrell of Shultis Corners, and nine grandchildren. Funeral services will be held at the home in Shultis Corners on Friday, July 1st, at 2 p. m. Interment will be in the Chestnut Hill cemetery at Pine Grove.

Mrs. Katherine Leahy Callahan, wife of Thomas E. Callahan, died this morning at her home, 308 Washington avenue, after a long illness. Mrs. Callahan was born in Sawkill and removed to Kingston with her family about ten years ago. She was a woman whose Christian character endeared her to a host of friends. She was an active member of St. Joseph's Church. Besides her husband she is survived by one son, Thomas, and two daughters, Mary and Helen, all at home; four brothers, James Leahy of this city, and Edward, Joseph and Raymond Leahy, all members of the New York city police department. Funeral services will be held from the late home Monday morning at 9 o'clock and thence to St. Joseph's Church where at 9:30 o'clock a high Mass of requiem will be offered. Burial in the family plot in St. Ann's cemetery at Sawkill.

Highland, June 30.—The funeral services for Frances Norvus Bruyn were held Sunday afternoon from the home of Harvey S. Traver, and were conducted by the Rev. Samuel Arthur MacCormac. The burial was in the Highland Cemetery. Miss Bruyn, the daughter of Severus Tinsout and Harriet Wisemiller Bruyn, was born in Walkill but with her parents came to this village when she was a small child. She began teaching school when in her early teens in the rural districts and a few years accepted a position in the grades in the old school house on Grand street. For this work she seemed particularly fitted and on her retirement 21 years ago she was teaching the 7th and 8th grades in the then new brick school building on upper Main street. As a member of the Methodist Church she was a worker in all its departments. A charter member of the U. D. Society, organized over 40 years ago, she had been active and through her cousin had her meeting but recently. Failing health for some time had prevented her presence in church and society. Surviving are the two children of her late brother, Henry, Miss Harriet Bruyn, of New York, and Henry Bruyn of Milford, Conn., also many cousins.

U. S. Is Making Use of Beavers to Stop Erosion

Washington.—A band of "government workers" in Idaho toil day after day at manual labor for less pay than the dollar-a-year man receives.

However, these beavers, for that is what they are, seem content with their jobs. They construct dams in streams to provide themselves with homes and help Uncle Sam arrest stream-bed erosion.

Transferred from distant localities by government experts, the beavers have been freed along swift running streams to do their natural ways. The beaver dams erected prevent valuable soil from being carried off by the currents.

Director F. R. Carpenter of the division of grazing disclosed that 8,000,000 acres of land have been designated as a game refuge area. Five other reservations aggregating 3,700,000 acres in five western states are now in process of negotiation between the federal and state officials.

It takes money for the young folks to get along. Usually, the older ones can live quite cheaply.

DIED

CALLAHAN.—In this city, Thursday, June 30, 1933, Katherine Leahy Callahan, beloved wife of Thomas E. Callahan and devoted mother of Thomas, Mary and Helen Callahan, and sister of James, Edward, Joseph and Raymond Leahy. Funeral will be held from the late residence, 308 Washington avenue, Monday morning, July 4, 1933, at 9 o'clock, thence to St. Joseph's Church, where a high Mass of requiem will be offered for the repose of her soul. Interment in the family plot in St. Ann's Cemetery, Sawkill.

CHRISTIAN.—At Port Ewen, N. Y., Tuesday, June 28, 1933, Maude G. Van Dyke, wife of Herbert C. Christian. Funeral at her residence on Green street, Port Ewen, Friday at 2:30 p. m. Relatives and friends invited. Interment in River View Cemetery, Port Ewen.

Attention!

Members of Mystic Court No. 62, Order of the Amaranth. Honored Lady Maud G. Christian passed away June 28. Court funeral services will be held at her home, Port Ewen, Thursday evening, June 30, at 7:30 p. m. Officers please wear white, and assemble at 7:15 sharp at her late residence.

By order of the Court,

Stocks Spurred Again Wednesday

After showing slight losses

Monday and Tuesday, stocks again spurred upward Wednesday to resume the path they followed all last week. Bonds and some commodities followed their lead. Highest volume, 2,660,000 shares, since October 29, marked the day's trading. Trading involved 946 different issues, 153 of them setting new highs for the year. Industrial stocks gained 5.49 points, up to 135.87. The Dow-Jones averages, highest point reached since November 1 last year. Ralls gained 1.61 points, to 26.18; utilities showed an advance of 0.61, to 12.31. The average for high grade rail bonds gained over a dollar and second grade issues did even better. Government bonds were quiet. Foreign markets were quiet.

Wheat was easier on good weather reports. Worth street was active with prices strong. Cotton was steady. Silk set new highs for the year.

Although the increase will be less than seasonal earnings of the leading auto makers (exclusive of Ford) are expected to show some improvement over the first quarter of the year. A somewhat lower expense level and a slight increase in volume of business are helping. A distinct improvement in New York retail trade has been manifest during the past ten days. It is estimated that department store sales last week were about 4.5 per cent under the same week in 1932, compared with 8.3 per cent the week previous and 18.7 per cent a month ago.

The AAA will fix the wheat loan rate at around 60 cents a bushel, unless present plans are changed. It is indicated that the loan rate will be kept at about the minimum allowed by law.

Based on figures from the first 20 roads to report carloadings for the week to June 25 will be approximately 562,000 cars. This will be an increase of 1.2 per cent over the preceding week, but 2 per cent below the like week in 1932.

Arrangements have been made for sale of a Stock Exchange seat at $65,000, up $7,000 from the last previous transaction.

Sales of National Tea for four weeks to June 18 totaled $1,209,063, off 14.6 per cent from a year ago.

The Edison Institute reports electric output for the June 25 week 9.8 per cent under a year ago.

No. 1 heavy melting steel scrap was advanced 25 cents a ton at Pittsburgh, to $12.75 to $13 a ton.

International Harvester Co. is reported to be making special downward price adjustments on its crawler type tractors to meet lower prices announced by Caterpillar Tractor Co. ten days ago.

The U. S. treasury's gold stocks stood at $12,960,458.09 on June 27.

Reports released by the treasury department show that foreigners sold American securities on balance during the first quarter of this year. The British and Dutch were the largest sellers.

SPINSTERS' HOPE is planned on Miss Florence White (above), who told London committee about hope of 4 1/2 million English women past 55 for payment of spinsters' pensions.

New York, June 30 (AP).—The stock market suffered a change of heart today after one of the speediest early starts of the past several years.

Initial gains of fractions to more than 2 points were subsequently chopped down materially or converted into sizable losses as heavy profit taking on the sharp upturn jolted the list.

Dealings slowed on the set-back and recovery signs were a evidence near the final hour. Transfers at the rate of approximately 2,600,000 shares.

Resisting the downpush were U. S. Steel, Republic, Chrysler, Goodrich, Western Union, North American, Southern Pacific, Pennsylvania, Chesapeake & Ohio, Public Service of N. J., Allied Chemical, Phelps Dodge, Deere, American Radiator, Lone Star Cement, Texas Corp., Woolworth and Eastman Kodak.

On the slipping side were General Motors, Kennecott, American Can, Westinghouse, International Harvester, Douglas Aircraft, J. I. Case, Union Carbide, Crano Co., Sears Roebuck, du Pont and Consolidated Edison.

Bonds generally acted better than stocks and most commodities maintained a forward trend.

About The Folks

Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Zucca, who have been making their home in the Quigley Apartments at 89 Green street, have moved to their newly purchased home at 33 Pine street.

Utica milk dealers, making their annual spring drive to reclaim lost milk bottles, have decided that the containers are good for "20 round trips." Estimating that each bottle costs them six cents, the dealers say that four customers are required to serve one customer daily—the one which is left each morning, the one which is collected, one already at the plant being washed for the next day and the one in the customer's ice box.

Saugerties Marriages

The marriage of Miss Wilhelm Rinaldi, daughter of Anthony Rinaldi of Saugerties and Peter V. Yadaack, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Yadaack of Catskill, was solemnized at St. Mary's R. C. Church by the Rev. Edmund T. Harty, assisted by the Very Rev. John L. Smith, pastor of St. Patrick's Church, Catskill. The matron of honor was Mrs. Joseph Cimorelli of Newark, N. J., a sister of the bride. John Yadaack, a brother of the groom, acted as best man. The newly married couple will tour the New England states and upon their return will reside in Catskill.

Host at Children's Party

Walter R. Batcheller of Green street was host this afternoon at a children's party at the Woodstock Country Club in honor of Barbara Geer and Mimi and Carol Smith of Middletown. About 35 guests ranging between the ages of 1 and 16 from Woodstock and Kingston spent the afternoon at swimming, badminton and other sport games. Those present from Kingston were Gay and Emilie Chambers, Peter Rakov, Lucy and Jimmy Fuller, Jean Babcock, Jimmy Hinkle, Robert and Joan Weber. Assisting Mr. Batcheller in the arrangements were Mrs. George Sprick of this city and Mrs. James Murray of Saugerties.

Scenes From Class Day Exercises At K. H. S.

Above are shown the principal speakers of the evening. Left to right are John St. Leger, who gave the advice to the juniors; Robert Maresca who gave the faculty address; Amy Munn, the class prophet; John Leahy, the class orator; Joseph Kearney, the class president; Elizabeth Heaps, the class poet; Daniel Lammon, the class critic and William Cole who gave the response for the Junior class.

The charming "Witch" on the lower left is Betty Gill who read the class legacy as it appeared in the calendar before her. The shy "pig-tailed" maiden on the lower right is Mary Adaline Summers as she stood in the first scene before her book, "History Made Easy" and enacted the history of the class.

Bride and Groom Feted

Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Boice on returning home from a honeymoon tour of the northern part of New York state were tendered a reception recently at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Boice of the Sawkill road, by a group of merry-making friends who came prepared to "raise old nick." It was in the form of an old fashioned "skimming-ton" and all the old cow bells, automobile horns and pots and pans were dragged out from underneath the cobwebs for the occasion. Parading around the house they serenaded the young couple, who before many minutes had passed came out and joined the revelers. The skimming-ton was combined with a shower and many useful and lovely gifts were received by the bride. Dancing was later enjoyed. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hulsair, Herbert Hulsair, Mrs. Frank Joy, Francis Joy, Mrs. Mary Brown, Ada Brown, Horace Brown, Mr. and Mrs. George Boice, George W. Boice, Charles Boice, William Hargraves, Alvinette Meyers, Mildred Janacek, Sylvia Janacek, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lyke, Abbie Lyke, Ivie Lyke, Alfred Lyke, Leland Lyke, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Boice, John Hoffman, Mary Hoffman, Rosa Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. James Forster, Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Boice, Lemuel Boice, Jr., Katherine Whipple, Mr. and Mrs. Pratt Boice, Lillian M. Boice, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Boice, Harry Wood, Olive G. Boice, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Vanderveer, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Haynes, John Schupp, Mrs. Edward Gerlach, Almeda Gerlach, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Wyant, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Brown, Anna Brown, Fredrick Brown, James Brown, Esie Smith, Edward Peterson, Albert Short, Mr. and Mrs. Kaman, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown, Edward Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Schupp, Bertha Schupp, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lyke and daughter and a friend, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Byer, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rowe, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Carlson, Joseph Dier, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Steinhaber, Mr. Bullis and George Brown. Music for the dancing was furnished by a number of the guests who came prepared for the occasion.

Engagement Announced

ARE YOUR PERSONALITY TRAITS MEN-PLEASERS OR MEN-FREEZERS?

Clever Little Julie! She's learned that it's not a snub nose that causes those wide open spaces in the date book—but the personality faults that we call "men-freezers."

Maybe you're guilty of some of them. ARE you?

Do you drift into an absent-minded stare while your date tells you about his life work? Do you rouse yourself with "huh?"

Are you sometimes a little bit messy? Do you hitch your shoulder straps, spill cigarette ashes over yourself?

Do you have one of those high voices which run on and on?

Do you look humbly grateful when a man asks you out—when he accepts your invitations?

If these are your faults—what you need is this list of "men-pleasers."

No matter what your man talks about—baseball or the latest style in bolts—listen with your soul in your eyes. He'll think you're the most interesting girl alive.

Don't risk off-days in your grooming. Your man may not know the difference between dirndls and culottes, but a spotty dress sticks in his mind's eye a long time. And he'll tidy about that cigarette! Manage it—for you can!—with feminine allure.

Talk in a low-pitched voice. The most alluring actresses do

Fawn Donated To Forsyth Zoo

Elmer and Bill are playing mother to a young fawn presented to the city zoo at Forsyth Park this week. The deer is three weeks old and has to be fed from a bottle. This job has been assigned to William Whitaker and Elmer Van Gaasbeck, keepers at the park zoo.

The deer, which is yet without a name, is a lucky specimen of the deer family, and his menu consists entirely of milk which has to be heated to a certain temperature and then fed to him through a bottle.

The little fellow is very tame and will respond readily to a whistle from either Elmer or Bill. He also knows when it is meal time, and is ready and waiting for his meal when the hour rolls round for feeding.

As soon as the deer becomes a little older he will be placed in the deer run.

Turtle is Timely
Pawling, N. Y., June 30 (AP)—Yea sir, it's the old turtle-story— with some extra trimmings. Eliking through the Pawling mountain woods, with a Boy Scout troop, William Mott came upon a turtle with the initials of his grandfather, the late Dwight McGregory, and the date 1911 carved in the shell. Here's the extra trimming! The same turtle was found two years ago by another grandson—Ernest Mott.

TEEN-AGE BOLERO AND FROCK

MARIAN MARTIN PATTERN 9704

Gayest of the gay, newest of the new, is Pattern 9704. The fewest possible seams—yet it's immensely attractive, and right for every moment of a "teenster's" day, all summer long! Look how cleverly the built-up waist follows the curve taken by the jolly little bolero (which will look nice with other dresses too). Picture yourself in this sweetheart of a summer holiday frock—with neckline high or square cut—and ric-rac braid decorating both dress and bolero. Fabric choice, like the making, is easy. A peasant print or floral cotton for everyday, a silk print for "best."

Pattern 9704 may be ordered only in Junior and misses' sizes 10, 12, 14, 16 and 18. Size 14 requires 3½ yards 36 inch fabric, and 5½ yards ric-rac.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins or stamps (coin preferred) for EACH MARIAN MARTIN pattern. Be sure to write plainly your SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS, and STYLE NUMBER.

See our MARIAN MARTIN PATTERN BOOK OF SUMMER STYLES before deciding on your summer wardrobe! Designed for YOU for every occasion, this collection of beautifully-fitting patterns contains all those up-to-the-minute styles that you have been looking for. Fashion facts for daughters and mothers; cool breezy frocks for glorious vacation trips or a summer at home; vivacious play-time styles are included. Write for your copy today. PRICE OF BOOK FIFTEEN CENTS. PRICE OF PATTERN FIFTEEN CENTS. BOOK AND PATTERN TOGETHER TWENTY-FIVE CENTS.

Seek New Codes
San Francisco, June 29 (AP)—Adoption of voluntary codes by business to discourage ruthless competition was urged today by the International Kiwanis Club. The committee on business standards, deceptive advertising, financial manipulation, poor merchandising, inadequate service all were condemned by the committee, headed by Fred M. Barnes, of Jersey City, N. J.

He Can Go
Schenectady, N. Y., June 29 (AP)—Edward F. Macaulay, chosen to a contest as New York's 1938 "safest driver," is also a fast driver—when he wants to be. Racing the county in six days, Macaulay, accompanied by his wife, back in his car out of the garage, gave it the once-over, and four and a half days later was in Los Angeles, 3,094 miles away.

Blarney Stone Attracts Visitors From All Lands

When the pleasant scene of the Blarney stone began is not historically dated, though the expression "blarney" is said to date to the Elizabethan days, according to a writer in the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. It is supposed to denote a peculiar form of wheedling Irish eloquence originally ascribed to a Lord Clancarty in his communications with the English queen. His failure to fulfill his promise to surrender the castle and his knack of explaining plausible excuses with words which left the queen indulgent but never satisfied.

The stone which is divided into three was the work of a lunatic who cast the loose stone from the top. Which of the three parts was placed in the present position is not clear, but the drop of the stone and its replacement involves an acrobatic feat for kissing. It is necessary to lie flat on the battlement, extending the body backwards and downwards into the hollow in the wall, and then kissing the stone, which is above the face.

All Blarney, no less than its castle, goes back a long time. In the second century, it was the seat of Eam Mor, who shared the kingship of Ireland with Conn of the Hundred Battles. He was the ancestor of the McCarthy's. The original castle was built in 1445 by Cormac McCarthy, "the Strong." It was one of the Jeffreys who was responsible for the establishment of the town of Blarney in its modern aspect. The establishment dates back to the middle of the eighteenth century, when a grandiose scheme of town planning and building caught the imagination of the owners of Blarney. In the plan the village was to be strangely embellished by quadrangles and triangular lawns. In order to fulfill the ambitious scheme, an effort was made to change the course of the Avonmore river by means of a cut and fine stone bridges. The project was undertaken but abandoned because of its elaborateness of purpose.

Academic Freedom—Academic freedom, as defined in the Britannica Book of the Year, is the right of a person connected with an educational institution freely to express the conclusions resulting from his study, either orally or through publications, without interference or restraint from administrative, political, or religious authority. It is subject to limitations imposed by scholarly bodies who may insist that academic freedom shall neither cloak techniques found clearly imperfect, nor violate canons of professional ethics.

Stadium Work Is Progressing

Work on the new stadium is progressing, although with much of the rough grading done the force employed there is reduced from the peak of a few weeks ago.

Wednesday following the lay-off because of rain, carpenters and bricklayers were busy and part of the forms for one section of the seats was in place and a section of the brick wall had been laid. In the section south of the playing field, adjoining the Forsyth Park property, a force of men are at work drilling and blasting to remove a considerable portion of rock yet remaining.

Two Men Sought

New York, June 30 (AP)—Two men seen drinking with Mrs. Rita Bonfiglio, 24, were sought last night by police investigating her death by strangulation. Charles Ryan, a piano player in the bar where the party sat, said Mrs. Bonfiglio left with her two table companions. Detectives said they understood her estranged husband, Vito Bonfiglio, worked for New Jersey racing interests.

Highway Deaths Decrease—Albany, N. Y., June 30 (AP)—New York state's highway fatalities for 1938 are running behind last year. State Motor Vehicle Commissioner Charles A. Hartnett said today the first six months of this year had produced 230 fewer deaths than during the same time in 1937. The total, he added, was 1,196 for this year. There were 52 less deaths in May than for the same month last year.

Kurdt Goes Camping

Albert Kurdt, Ulster county Farm Bureau Manager, with his family, left today on a vacation trip. They expect to camp on the shores of Keuka Lake for 10 days or so, returning home about July 10.

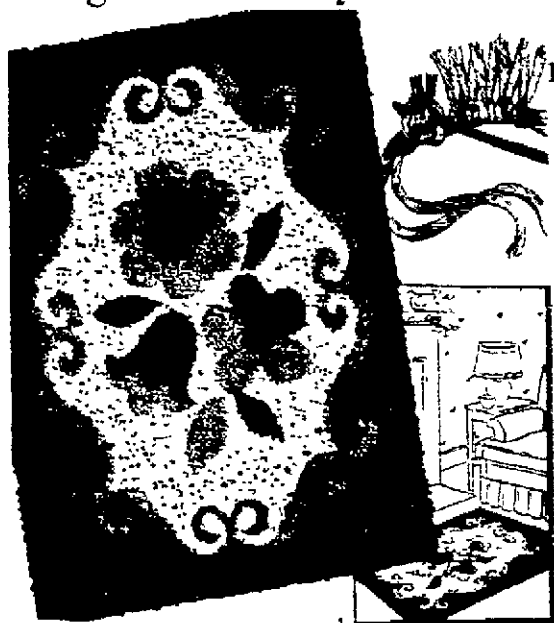

No Passing Pronouncements

New York, June 30 (AP)—The nation's school children will be glad to know today that 16 teachers took a pronunciation test at the National Education Association's convention here and not one made a passing grade.

Ellenville S. S. Picnic

A hundred or more members of the Ellenville Methodist Sunday School, with officers and teachers, are holding their annual picnic today in Forsyth Park.

Rug Made of Easy Crocheted Strip

Household Arts by Alice Brooks

An Original Alice Brooks Design

PATTERN 6166

Here's a new wrinkle in the art of rug-making. A rug made in a continuous length—just short ends caught together with a crochet hook—the strips then sewn together. The result is a rich design—a luxurious pile. Use candlewick, rags or yarn. Pattern 6166 contains instructions and charts for making rug. Illustrations of it and of stitches; materials needed; color chart.

To obtain this pattern send 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) to the Kingston Daily Freeman, Household Arts Dept., 256 W. 14th street, New York, N. Y. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS and PATTERN NUMBER.

"Pie de-luxe—but be sure to use super-delicious Jack Frost!"

DEEP DISH CHERRY PIE
(Serves about 8)

1 cup Jack Frost Light Brown Sugar, firmly packed
1/2 teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons cornstarch
4 cups sour, red, pitted cherries
Unbaked pastry

1. Mix sugar, salt and cornstarch. Be sure to use Jack Frost Light Brown Sugar to give a distinctive flavor to the pie.
2. Add sugar mixture to cherries. Cook slowly, stirring constantly, until thick and clear. (If not enough juice, add a little water.)
3. Line sides of a 1 1/2-quart casserole with pastry. Let pastry come a little above edge of dish.
4. Fill casserole with cherry mixture. Cover with upper crust. Trim 1/2-inch larger than dish.
5. Fold upper crust over lower, pressing firmly together. Flute edge. Make slits in upper crust.
6. Bake in hot oven (450° F.) 10 minutes. Reduce heat to moderate (350° F.) Bake 40 minutes longer. *Canned cherries may be substituted, using 4 cups cherries, drained, and 1/2 cup juice.

STONE RIDGE

Stone Ridge, June 30.—Mrs. John Bartell and Miss Juella Freye, who have been house guests at the Reformed Dutch parsonage the past two weeks, were accompanied to Schuylerville by the Rev. Harold Hoffman, where they were entertained at the home of the Rev. Mr. Hoffman's brother, the Rev. Harvey Hoffman, for a few days. Mrs. Bartell and Miss Freye returned to their home in Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. George Weeks motored to Staatsburgh Thursday and visited Mrs. Weeks' sister, Mrs. Newton Smith.

Miss Jessie Quick and Bertram Van Demark of High Falls were married at the Reformed Dutch Church on Sunday, June 19, by the Rev. Harold Hoffman. They were attended by the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Quick. The bride was attired in a blue suit and carried a bouquet of roses and the groom wore a blue coat and white trousers. The groom is employed at Lake Mohonk.

Sunday services at the Reformed Dutch Church will be as follows: Sunday school at 10 a. m. 11 o'clock a Children's Day program will be presented by the Sunday school with Louis D. Sahler presiding. Those to take part are: Edward Kenna, Irene Toller, Billy and Gene Roosa, Connie Winkelman, John Roosa, Mary Van DeMark, Donald Roosa, Helen Silkworth, Anna Mae Hoffman, Frances Barnhart, Nora Toller, Harry Barnhart and Isabelle Guzman.

The Christian Endeavor of the Reformed Dutch Church will meet Sunday evening at 8 o'clock instead of 7:30 as previously announced.

Congratulations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Hollister Sutton, who were married on Sunday at their home in the village by the Rev. Frank Seeler, of Kingston.

Miss Anne Service visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Service this week. Miss Service was accompanied by Mrs. William Phillips and daughter, Miss Rose Mary Phillips, of Old Forge. They returned to Old Forge Tuesday and Miss Service will spend the summer at Higby Camp on Big Moose Lake in the Adirondacks.

The Grange will discontinue their regular semi-monthly meetings until July 18.

Sunday service at St. Peter's

Episcopal Church at 11:30 a. m. the Rev. Auguste Marlier, vicar. Mr. and Mrs. Elting Sickler, of Kingston, were entertained Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sherman.

Church School on Sunday at the M. E. Church will convene at 10:30 a. m. with Oscar Wood as superintendent. Worship at 11:30 o'clock, when the pastor, the Rev. Frederick G. Baker, will take as his topic "The Marks of Christianity."

Mrs. Harold Hoffman, and son, Robert, were welcomed home at the Reformed Dutch parsonage on Tuesday after enjoying a six weeks' stay with friends and relatives in Michigan. Mrs. Hoffman was accompanied home by her mother, Mrs. John Newhouse, of Kalamazoo, Mich.

Members and friends of the Rogue's Harbor Club will have a dance in the barn of Dr. Sanger Carlton Saturday evening. The dance is in charge of Mrs. Charles Walden.

Edward Davis has resumed his position as manager of the farm of Frank Alterwisher and is assisted by Stanley Wilklow.

A number of people from this place formed a party and motored to Woodstock for dinner Thursday evening and later attended the opening of the Woodstock Playhouse.

Freshman Girls Taught to Groom Themselves

Ithaca, N. Y.—Any girl can be good looking "if she follows the rules," believes Mrs. Gladys Butt, instructor in the college of home economics, Cornell university.

"The rules" are laid down in a new course for freshman girls at the university, which teaches them how to improve their looks by proper grooming.

Among the facilities of the course is a beauty shop where the students learn to give each other shampoos, facials, manicures, hair dressings and other beauty aids. They also learn how to make simple cosmetics, which gives the girls an opportunity to care for their appearance without too much expense.

Graceful postures while sitting, standing and walking are taught by instructors in the physical education department. Faults in posture are not only pointed out, but, if possible, are corrected.

Each girl in the course has an opportunity to study clothing and to decide the lines, colors, and textures which suit her best. Dress-making and care of clothes also are taught.

By LYDIA GRAY SHAW

THERE'S plenty of danger lurking about when the city child plays in the summer time. The crowded park playground and the street are likely to be his only play spots, and there are hazards in both.

PLAYGROUND: Blisters ahead

The small youngster may find it hard even to get near the equipment in a park. And if he isn't used to doing front-flop down the slide, he's likely to forget and grab hold with his hands. That means blisters and skinned fingers.

At that, a playground is better than the street. But if no playground is accessible, see to it that your child plays in streets shut off from traffic. He may get hit in the eye with a baseball, but at least he won't be run down by a truck. Most cities shut off a few streets for at least part of the day.

Parked cars look enticing to the youngster wandering about in search of excitement. He hops in and experiments with the self-starter and choke—often disastrously. Emphasize—with hairbrush, if necessary—that cars get started a lot more easily than they stop.

Climbing fire escapes is on the black list, too. Even if mother is at the window to supervise, a youngster may lose his footing.

FIRE ESCAPE: Not made for fun

STREET: Strictly a business proposition

PARKED AUTO: No place to fool

Don't Attack.

Both the United States-Biological Survey and The Hudson's Bay Company have made quite exhaustive research into whether or not a wolf will attack a human... and there has never been discovery of an authenticated case of such attack.

Experiments have shown that hay silage can be substituted for either corn silage or hay without noticeably affecting the milk production.

The man who is a natural leaner excuses his worthlessness by assuring himself that whatever is suggested cannot be done. But your ambitious, energetic man may ruin himself because he is too fond of saying, nothing is impossible, and beating himself out against a series of stone walls.

Paris (AP)—Paris department stores have been in the animal business for five years now and their trade is so brisk they've enlarged their stock. Anyone can stroll into one of the Paris department stores and walk out with a leopard for 5,300 francs, a baby elephant for 25,000 francs, a kangaroo for 7,500 francs or a dromedary for 900 francs.

Mother Goose rhymes and the age-old fairy tales beloved by children will come to life in a four-acre Fantasy Village for youngsters at the 1939 Gate International Exposition.

WOODSTOCK

Woodstock, June 30.—Mrs. Floyd Woods, daughter of Mrs. Mary Fletcher Brown, returned from California with her brother Robert Brown, and family, with whom she visited in Chicago on her way east.

The M. E. Church will hold a food sale beside Tannery Brook in the village Friday.

Frank Waiser visited a few days last week with friends in Woodstock. While there he was the guest of Dr. Nina Bull, at her home.

Obayo Wilson, author of an article on El Greco in the June issue of Magazine of Art, is a guest at Reynolds House on Overlook Mountain.

Artists' Group to Sponsor Opening Maverick Concert

Woodstock, June 30.—The Woodstock Artists Association is sponsoring the opening performance of the Maverick Little Symphony at the Maverick Amphitheatre Monday at 8 p. m.

The concert will be followed by a picnic supper, with spaghetti and other refreshments to be served on the grounds. Besides this there will be facilities for bonfires provided for basket picnics. Artists will come in costume so the gay-like atmosphere should be reminiscent of the Maverick festival. The evening's festivities will close with a performance of "The Cradle Will Rock," in the Maverick Theatre.

Library Has Manuscripts of 120 Well-Known Poets

Buffalo.—Original work-sheets used by 120 contemporary English, Irish and Scottish poets have been brought here to be exhibited in the Lockwood Memorial Library at the University of Buffalo.

The manuscripts were collected by Prof. Charles D. Abbott, university librarian, during a three-month European tour.

Abbott revealed that the work-sheets, many of them heavily pencilled, will be used as the basis for a collection which he hopes may prove valuable to psychologists at the university.

"Scholarship has come more and more to depend—for its understanding of the mechanics of creative writing—on the comparison of the variations in the text of poems at their various stages of development," Abbott explained. "By comparison the scholar learns something about the mental processes which have gone into the making of the poem."

Included in the material brought back by the professor were manuscripts from such poets as Walter de la Mare, John Masefield, Alfred Noyes, T. S. Eliot, James Stephens, Stephen Spender, Humbert Wolfe and Andrew Young.

In instances where poets had died recently manuscripts were obtained from relatives.

RUSHING WORK ON MISSISSIPPI DAM

Huge Pool to Be Formed When Locks Are Closed.

Clinton, Iowa.—Engineers expect to complete the $4,500,000 dam and lock in the Mississippi river two miles north of here late this summer and close the 30-ton gates to build up a pool extending 30 miles north to Bellevue.

The dam is being built under supervision of United States engineers of the Rock Island (I.L.) district to eliminate navigation hazards on what is reportedly one of the most treacherous portions of the upper Mississippi. Sandbars no longer will menace boats at the mouths of the Maquoketa, Elk, Apple and Plum rivers and the danger of huge tufts and their barges becoming stuck in shallow water will be ended.

Silt Bars Eliminated.

The four relatively small but swift-flowing streams carry heavy silt burdens at flood stage to form sandbars where the rivers meet the more sluggish Mississippi. Engineers claim the large, shifting bars will not form in the same fashion when the dam is completed and say that it will be possible to dredge them out.

All dams north of Dubuque have been completed and the Bellevue dam also will be completed by late summer. Towboats with barges whose cargo sometimes weighs as much as 6,500 tons are "locked" into and out of the great pools. The variation in depth above and below each dam is approximately 100 feet. Each lock is more than 600 feet long and 110 feet wide.

600 Miles of Slack Water.

The series of dams extends from St. Paul, Minn., to Alton, Ill., to provide "slack-water" navigation over nearly 600 miles of the upper Mississippi.

The pools are described as "nine-foot channels," which means the water depth never is less than nine feet, the minimum at which 2,000-ton barges may operate when loaded to capacity.

In many places the depth of the water ranged from 20 to 40 feet without the dams, but sandbars created trouble. Locks and dams of the entire system along the river are expected to be completed and operating before the end of the summer in 1939.

Men

In The News

By The AP Feature Service

This week we present four male members of the Class of '38:

MILITARY

John Robert Cannarone of Nutley, N. J., was top man of the 301 graduates from the United States Military Academy at West Point.

MUNICIPAL

Mayor Florio LaGuardia, of New York City, received the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws at the New York University commencement.

MULTIFARIOUS

John Czacherski, 67, a bricklayer and a native of Poland, has attended three grammar schools, an art school, a trade school and two colleges. This year he earned a diploma from a Chicago high school.

MILEAGE

Glenn Cunningham, champion miler, bachelor of science in education at Kansas, '34, and master of arts at Iowa, '36, has just become a doctor of philosophy at New York University. The subject of his thesis was: "The Relation Of Selected Cardio-Vascular And Strength Measures To The Physical Fitness Of Outstanding Athletes."

PARIS-BOUND. Howard Hughes (above), wealthy aviator and movie producer, has been putting his Lockheed plane through the paces at Los Angeles, preparing for a nonstop flight to New York from which point he plans a speed hop to France.

WARS and talk of war have heightened the interest of Scott P. Squire (above), Oklahoma City, national commander of Veterans of Foreign Wars, in history-making events.

Flea Is a Good Jumper

—800 Times Own Length

A flea is no good at running, and not very much at walking, but it can jump. The record high jump for a flea is about seven and a quarter inches, and it makes a long jump of fourteen inches.

When you think of the size of a flea, observes a writer in London Answers Magazine, this is pretty good work. It means that it can jump something like 800 times its own length. If a man could do that, his record long jump would be well over three-quarters of a mile.

In one respect, fleas are unique. All other insects are either more or less rounded, like caterpillars and beetles, or flattened, like butterflies and cockroaches, but fleas are squeezed sideways. That suits their purpose very well, as they mostly make their homes on furniture, animals, and their shape enables them to slip about and dodge between the hairs.

When the flea takes its dinner it drives its proboscis home, right up to the hilt. Down goes its head and up goes its tail, just like a swan feeding on the river bottom. It then uses a special little pump inside it to bring up the blood. When at last satisfied, it leans back, tugs, and out comes the proboscis with a jerk.

The Ananias Club

A person who deliberately tells untruths is said to be a member of the Ananias club. It is an old phrase which President Theodore Roosevelt popularized by applying it to persons who knowingly distorted the truth. In colloquial speech an Ananias is a liar. Ananias was a follower of the Apostles and a member of the first Christian community at Jerusalem. The Bible says that these early Christians "had all things in common." According to Acts 5, Ananias sold a piece of land and conspired with his wife Sapphira to keep back part of the price instead of contributing it all to the common fund and taking an equal chance with the others. For their falsehood and hypocrisy both were miraculously punished by Peter with sudden death.

Manager—There are only 25 people in the audience. Wouldn't it be better to give them their money back?

Cashier—Impossible—they all have complimentary tickets.

GARDINER

Gardiner, June 29.—Mrs. Abram Freer and Mrs. James Crowell of Binghamton spent a few days of last week with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hoffman.

Miss Alice Pouchart and a girl friend of Stamford, Conn., were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Abram Freer.

Kyanize, Hedricks Tie 3-3; Mohawk Giants Here Tonight

Dawkins Saves the Day for His Club in the Last Inning

Neff Fans 15

Friday's Game Brings Together Jones Dairymen and the Caseys—No Contest on Slate for Tonight

Last night there was no joy in Newville, for in the final inning at the Athletic Field Fred Baumgarten's Hedricks were leading the Kyanizers in the first City League Baseball game of the week 3-1.

Then Jack Dawkins stepped to the plate, connected with one of Charlie Neff's stingers and set up two runs to tie the score, 3-3.

How the Runs Came

The Hedricks chalked one up in the second inning, with two out. P. Rask and McLean cracked hits in a row, and H. Rask's single accounted for the run. No. 2 came in the fourth on P. Rask's one baser and triple by McLean. The third was made on H. Rask's single and an error by Muller in the seventh.

Sickler made the first run for the Dawkins clan in the third. He singled and came home on Dawkins' blow. Stump and Lamb struck out in the seventh and then as Neff bunched a bit, the Kyanize bunched came through. Sickler hit for one sack, Knight and Murphy were given free trips in first and with the bases loaded, Jack Dawkins leaned on one.

Fisher tried for the ball, booting a first, then throwing wildly to home, to let two runs in. Neff bunched Debrosky with Dawkins waiting on second to score the winning tally.

Friday night the Jones Dairymen and the K. of C. team will play, weather permitting. Tuesday night's Grunwald-Clois game was not played because the week-end heavy rains had soaked the field.

Neff vs. Thomas

Neff pitched against Thomas last night and the Hedrick hurler fanned 15 men and walked eight. Thomas struck out nine and gave one walk. Neff gave four hits, Thomas eight.

In the last of the third the City League staged its first scrimmage of the year, when, after Umpire Bill Murphy declared Knight out at home plate on a play by C. Neff, a little difference developed between Lamb and Cugin. After a few futile shoves and forth, with no casualties for either belligerent, the game resumed.

Diamond Dust

Stump plopped another foul ball through a Jacobson window for the second break-up since the game moved to the new diamond. What the new diamond needs is a good going over by the scarifier and then an equally good rolling. One of the base hits credited to the boys because some drives are made, likewise errors made on infield play would never be recorded the way they are now if this little process were carried out.

Stelgerwald said Jim Stelgerwald wasn't credited with three-bagger in the boxscore of last night's Clog-Casey game. It is right and King gets the bagger. He had a single as well, which was credited in the summary.

Last night's game, as is true of all contests on the new diamond, has been good for the league. It has given more fun out of the game and so does Treasurer Banks. The league has had a lot of tough luck from the other this year, though, and the boys wearing orchids.

Ulster County Bar Drops Contest to Dutchess Lawyers

Due to the late arrival of the starting pitcher, who was rushed to the mound without chance of a warm-up the Ulster County Bar Association lost its annual softball tilt to the Dutchess County Bar Wednesday at Glencliff to the tune of 8 to 3. This defeat was chalked up despite the fact that Irving J. Kauder, Ulster county poultryman, acted as umpire and a second local man, "Doc" Hill, called them on the bases.

When the smoke of battle cleared away and the book was checked it appears that "Doc" Runk, playing shortstop, won handsily on number of errors and some members of the team blame his four errors for at least seven of the eight runs scored. "Van" Haver says "Doc" was laboring under the impression that Haver had a bet on the game and "threw the game."

"Bud" Culloton, former Pittsburgh, National League pitcher, started the game but got off to a bad start when his team failed to properly support him and several hits were gathered by short hits through shortstop, Kovacs, the Poughkeepsie pitcher, received excellent support and took an early lead. On the receiving end was Justice Harry E. Schirick, former Cornell star, who was a power also with the stick. In the last two or three innings Surrogate George F. Kaufman took the mound and pitched a no-hit game but this morning he was suffering from a severely lame shoulder.

Judge John T. Loughran was scheduled for the starting pitcher but was late in arriving at the game and was unable to warm up in time to take his turn in the box.

The two best hits of the game were made by Justice Schirick, former Colonial manager, who raced around to third on one of the hits only to find it was not a hit at all but a foul ball. The second hit was a long one out in the tall timber, but that turned out to be an out when the outfielder's glove and the ball tangled. Discouraged and winded the Judge retired.

In the starting lineup were Culloton, pitcher; Schirick, catcher; Cook, first base; Haver, second base; Rusk, shortstop; Jansen, third base; Joe Forman, short field; Corporation Counsel Cashin, right field; Judge Matt Cahill, center field; W. A. Kelly, left field. During the fray Judge Kaufman, Judge Mino, Vince Connelly, Jim Connelly and Dave Schoenag were substituted.

When the first game was over Assistant District Attorney N. Le Van Haver, who is one of the stars of the Fair Street Men's Club team in the church softball league, organized a team from the Ulster Bar and challenged the world in an inter-bar game. Judge John T. Loughran, associate judge of the Court of Appeals, started out as umpire but there were so many "appeals" that he retired in favor of former County Attorney Arthur B. Ewig, who disposed of close decisions by means of his candid camera. With Haver pitching he won over Jim Connelly's team by a score of 7 to 5. Assisting in the win was the use of two balls, one being used to throw the runner out at first while the batted ball was being fielded.

Treasurer William A. Kelly announced the affair a success although the finances are low and the possibility of levying an extra assessment appears imminent.

Fred Stang acted as host and a very delicious beef steak dinner concluded the afternoon.

Chief Wawatam. Wawatam was an Ojibwa chief who befriended the English trader, Alexander Henry, at the time of the massacre at Old Mackinaw in 1763. He had shown a strong friendship for Henry, had warned him as plainly as he dared, and had tried to get him away. After the massacre he appeared before the chief who held Henry prisoner and pleaded successfully for the life of his "brother." Henry was concealed by him until all danger was past. In later years Wawatam became blind and he was accidentally burned in his lodge at Ottawa Point.

Some Weigh and Measure in a Haphazard Manner

All our measurements are governed by the most accurate standards imaginable, but because this is so it must not be thought that a great many people do not measure and weigh and reckon time in a most haphazard manner, declares a writer in London Tit-Bits Magazine.

Our mile is 1,760 yards, but the Burmese reckons his mile as equal to the distance he can walk in the middle of the day, when it is hottest, without stopping for a rest.

In Egypt the Great Pyramid throws a shadow at sundown which is said to reach for miles, and this used to be a sign for the rice workers to knock off.

Some people in the Rhineland do not boil eggs by means of automatic timers; they prefer the old way of repeating the Lord's Prayer slowly, when they know the eggs are done.

Even the canal men in Holland do not always look at maps to see the number of miles they have covered. They know by the number of pipes they have smoked on the journey.

Names for United States Capital. Several experiments were made in naming the capital of the United States until the present one became fixed. From the beginning until 1871 the following names were used:

"The Federal City," "City of Washington, District of Columbia," "City of Washington, Territory of Columbia," "City of Washington," without reference to the district, "Washington, D. C.," and simply "Washington." In 1871 the municipal charters of Washington and Georgetown were revoked by congress and there ceased to be any difference between Washington and the District of Columbia so far as government and laws are concerned. In 1921 President Harding's Thanksgiving proclamation was "done in the capital of the United States." The designation raised the question as to what the official name of the national capital should be. Accordingly an executive order was issued designating "The City of Washington" as the official name of the capital of the United States.

Sues Fritz Kuhn

Emanuel J. Jack (above) filed suit in New York against Fritz Kuhn, leader of the German-American Bund, for $3,000,000, charging Kuhn had testified that "all Jews without exception are enemies of the United States."

Malley Gets Job

Washington, June 30 (AP)—The treasury hired Peter J. Malley of New York today to haul $1,290,000,000 worth of silver from New York to a new storehouse at West Point. He will be paid $157,000. Malley's trucks will be guarded by 55 Coast Guardsmen on the 50-mile treasury trek. He'll have to make the trip five days a week for nearly 10 months to complete the job. The first truckload will leave New York Tuesday or Wednesday.

Expenditures at High. Washington, June 30 (AP)—Public works allotments have swelled to a 19-year high of $1,322,947,452 the funds to be expended by the war and navy departments in the next 12 months. Congress voted the bulk in specific appropriations.

Prayer Service Tonight. This evening a cottage prayer service will be held by the congregation of the Roundout Presbyterian Church at the home of Mrs. William McCullough on West Chestnut street.
